

2016-2017 Southwest Middle School 8th Grade Boys Basketball Tryout Information

Thank you for your interest in Southwest Bulldog basketball! Southwest basketball players will emphasize academics, sportsmanship, and athletic excellence. I am very excited about the coming season and am honored to have the opportunity to work with your children.

Tryouts will be held on:	Wednesday	Nov. 30	3:15 – 5:00 (main gym)
	Thursday	Dec. 1	5:30 - 7:00 (main gym)
	Friday	Dec. 2	3:15 - 5:00 (main gym)

Tryouts will be held in the Southwest gymnasium. Please be dressed in appropriate attire (gym shoes, shorts, etc.)

To participate in the tryout process, each student-athlete must have completed the following requirements by Monday November 28th at 3:30 p.m.:

1. All forms (available in the office or online at the Southwest website) must be current and on file with the school office:
 - a. Physical examination form
 - b. Notarized insurance form
 - c. Concussion form
 - d. Code of Conduct signed
 - e. Tryout/Participation Agreement signed
 - f. Grade Report filled out for every class, signed, and returned to Coach Dye
2. Players who make the team will be asked to pay a $50.00 athletic participation fee. This fee will be billed to you in the mail. Those needing a waiver should contact Lisa Koppes in the school office for details and qualifying information.
Note: Students who have already participated in a sport at Southwest this year should have items from #1 on file and will not need to submit new ones.

Student-athletes may not participate in tryouts until the information is on file in the office.

Tryouts will include, but are not limited to, these components:

1. SKILL TESTS: agility/footwork, vertical leap, shooting, speed, ball handling. Most of these consist of skills that can be counted, timed, or measured.

The News Letter Young Men's Hebrew Association (Kansas City, Mo.), 1929 ACC Basketball J. Samuel Walker, 2011
Since the inception of the Atlantic Coast Conference intense rivalries legendary coaches gifted players and fervent fans have come to define the league's basketball history In ACC Basketball J. Samuel Walker traces the traditions and the drama

Game of My Life Steve Buckner, 2007 Players from the 1988 NCAA Championship basketball squad share their insights into their defeat of rival Oklahoma in the national championship game in this chronicle Photos Best Practice for Youth Sport Robin S. Vealey, Melissa A. Chase, 2016-01-08 Although the physical and psychological benefits of youth participating in sport are evident the increasing professionalization and specialization of youth sport primarily by coaches and parents are changing the culture of youth sport and causing it to erode the ideal mantra It's all about the kids In Best Practice for Youth Sport readers will gain an appreciation of an array of issues regarding youth sport This research-based text is presented in a practical manner with examples from current events that foster readers' interest and class discussion The content is based on the principle of developmentally appropriate practice (DAP) which can be defined as engaging in decisions, behaviors, and policies that meet the physical, psychological, and social needs of children and youth based on their ages and maturational levels This groundbreaking resource covers a breadth of topics including bone development, burnout, gender, and racial stereotypes, injuries, motor behavior, and parental pressures Written by Robin S. Vealey and Melissa A. Chase the 16 chapters of Best Practice for Youth Sport are divided into four parts Part I Youth Sport Basics provides readers with the fundamental knowledge and background related to the history, evolution, and organization of youth sport Part II Maturation and Readiness for Youth Sport Participants is the core of understanding how and why youth sport is different from adult sport This part details why it is important to know when youth are ready to learn and compete Part III Intensity of Participation in Youth Sport examines the appropriateness of physical and psychological intensity at various developmental stages and the potential ramifications of overtraining, overspecialization, overstress, and overuse The text concludes with part IV Social Considerations in Youth Sport which examines how youth sport coaches and parents can help create a supportive social environment so that children can maximize the enjoyment and benefits from youth sport In addition to 14 appendixes, activities, glossaries, study questions, and other resources that appear in Best Practice for Youth Sport, the textbook is enhanced with instructor ancillaries, a test package, image bank, and instructor guide that features a syllabus, additional study questions, and learning activities, tips on teaching difficult concepts, and additional readings and resources These specialized resources ensure that instructors will be ready for each class session with engaging materials Ancillaries are free to course adopters and available at www.HumanKinetics.com/BestPracticeForYouthSport Best Practice for Youth Sport provides readers with knowledge of sport science concerning youth sport and engages them through the use of anecdotes, activities, case studies, and practical strategies Armed with the knowledge from this text, students, coaches, parents, administrators, and others will be able to become active agents of social change in structuring and enhancing youth sport programs to meet the unique developmental needs of children making the programs athlete centered rather than adult centered so that they truly are all about the kids

Reading Fundamentals for Teen-agers Rose Goldman Neufeld,1963 Chicago Hoops Calvin Davis,2023-04-26 During the 1950s the great migration from the South led many Black families to the city of Chicago As African American families took up residency all around the city the talent in the Chicago Public League s high schools took a huge leap Many of the schools that were previously predominantly White became Black Neighborhoods throughout the city changed as well Many White families moved to suburban areas outside of Chicago Since that time basketball has created thousands of scholarship opportunities for Black student athletes including myself My version of the Top 100 Players of All Time will not only be similar to many but also different from what other writers would put together The arguments about who belongs will always be present when the conversation centers on Chicago high school basketball My story is something I hope will be educational and inspirational to others who take the path I took as an inner city resident who put in the extra effort in the classroom on the court and in the community to find success I am a student of the human condition wielding the written craft to enrapture the mind much like an artist wields a brush The pages are a blank canvas on which to draw from a talent heralded by many but matched only by an imagination that rises to the task and delivers positivity

The Sportswoman ,1927 Phi Gamma Delta Quarterly ,1920 Acceptance is not Surrender William S. Sutherland,2016-07-22 This is a story about accepting loss rather than getting beaten by it It s about redefining oneself after a crippling disease by living the ups and downs of self discovery Far from giving up acceptance is living a life of disciplined thought and action searching for newfound strengths to replace those that have been lost It s about the strength of the human spirit It s about perseverance not only for the survivor but also for those closest to him It s about relationships and what loss does to test their strength and elasticity It s finding a way to move forward individually and collectively despite the obstacles Whether it s changing roles within the family completing the paperwork for the body s most basic function confronting suicide or walking with no hands each of these activities and more all came with their specific challenges and rewards The hard to find answers to the questions that started this journey are unique to the writer They are presented not as a manifesto to follow but as a starting point for you that you may find something here that can help you find your answers unique to you
