Anatomy of a State Collapse. Somalia, the Cold War and the era of Siyad Barré Christian Rabe, 2017-09-26 Seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject Politics Region Africa grade 1 0 University of Constance Department Politics course Failed States in Sub Saharan Africa language English abstract Self Government now had been the outspoken declaration of many African leaders in the aftermath of second world war The broader historical context opened a window for African countries to achieve statehood and new self determination independent from war ridden European colonial powers At the Horn of Africa and the neighbouring regions similarly to the overall trend on the continent countries became independent Ethiopia gained first home rule in 1941 Somalia 1960 during the so called year of Africa Sudan 1956 and Kenya in 1963 Yet the new right of self governance jointly with the difficult colonial heritage brought numerous new problems to African societies Leaders faced new challenges to transform their territories to progressive and prosperous nation states bringing African countries modernity However many of the territories given independence found their way into state failure As Collier 2007 points out in his book The bottom billion that global poverty is actually falling quite rapidly for about 80% of the world The real crisis is to be found in a group of about 50 failing states whose problems challenge traditional approaches to reduce poverty He argues that 50 failed states pose the central challenge of the developing world in the twenty first century On that account the phenomenon of failed states needs considerable investigation effort by scholars One especially extreme case of state failure is Somalia It is this African country which had become the epitome of a failed state such frequently quoted mentioned and discussed in literature like hardly any other Somalia attained an unknown level of media coverage when the US led mission UNOSOM in 1992 delivered food and aid to Somalia culminating in the shot down of US Helicopters over Mogadishu by troops of General Mohamed Farrah Aideed which led to an immediate withdrawal of US troops in October 1993

The Cold War and After Marc Trachtenberg, 2012 A new way of looking at international relations from a leading expert in the field What makes for war or for a stable international system Are there general principles that should govern foreign policy In The Cold War and After Marc Trachtenberg a leading historian of international relations explores how historical work can throw light on these questions The essays in this book deal with specific problems with such matters as nuclear strategy and U S European relations But Trachtenberg s main goal is to show how in practice a certain type of scholarly work can be done He demonstrates how in studying international politics the conceptual and empirical sides of the analysis can be made to connect with each other and how historical theoretical and even policy issues can be tied together in an intellectually respectable way These essays address a wide variety of topics from theoretical and policy issues such as the question of preventive war and the problem of international order to more historical subjects for example American policy on Eastern Europe in 1945 and Franco American relations during the Nixon Pompidou period But in each case the aim is to show how a theoretical perspective can be brought to bear on the analysis of historical issues and how historical analysis can shed light on basic conceptual problems
