Cosmopolitanism Francesco Ghia, Lorena Cebolla Sanahuja, 2015-11-25

Cosmopolitanism is the idea of humanity as a single community or polis. Beyond particularities, all human beings and in some versions of cosmopolitanism, certain non-humans are part of a community and have responsibilities, rights, and the power to decide on a common future. Ideas of cosmopolitanism vary from the purely moral to cultural, social, legal, institutional, political, educational, and economic cosmopolitanism, or combine some or all of these facets. All of these different perspectives try to establish the basis necessary to create a true cosmopolitanism. This book provides an introduction to the ideality and reality of cosmopolitanism, presenting it in genesis and giving a point of departure to students and readers of cosmopolitanism from which to analyse its various contemporary versions and proposals, providing an additional tool for their thinking and judgments in the face of a huge amount of literature today. It also offers a sense of emergency to those matters requiring a prompt legal, political, and economic response for the continuing existence of the planet and for cosmopolitanism to continue as a viable proposal for humanity. As such, this volume will ultimately provoke the reader into a new spirit and action that of cosmopolitanism.
