History Comes Home Steven Zemelman, 1999 Teachers recognize that to succeed in school children need to make connections between their own lives and the subjects they study By creating a supportive classroom community and employing in depth inquiry on a topic of real significance to students you can help them see how school subjects provide essential tools and knowledge for their lives The explorations of family histories developed in History Comes Home provides a powerful vehicle for achieving these goals in classrooms of all kinds In this lively step by step text you will find everything you need to carry out family history projects that will engage even your most reluctant students Strategies for organizing in depth exploration of their own heritage and activities for articulating and sharing their new knowledge are clearly explained in units that include student on student pair interviews interviewing family members profiling and graphing classroom data researching and assembling kinship charts creating family and formal history time lines making family history videos You will learn how to promote strong writing about family history use other expressive forms such as sketch to stretch to link family history with literature and math find Internet resources and government archives for tracing family origins and meaningfully assess student work Wide choices and options are described so that all students whatever their family make up can feel included Strategies for relating family history projects to district standards and requirements allow teachers to ensure that necessary curriculum is covered even as the strategies support students own lines of inquiry History Comes Home will help you expand the widely used family tree assignment into a rich and powerful part of your teaching that will strengthen your students skills in writing research and thinking and help your classroom come alive with learning across the curriculum

A Girl's Guide to Missiles Karen Piper, 2019-08-13 A poignant surreal and fearlessly honest look at growing up on one of the most secretive weapons installations on earth by a young woman who came of age with missiles The China Lake missile range is located in a huge stretch of the Mojave Desert about the size of the state of Delaware It was created during the Second World War and has always been shrouded in secrecy But people who make missiles and other weapons are regular working people with domestic routines and everyday dilemmas and four of them were Karen Piper's parents her sister and when she needed summer jobs herself Her dad designed the Sidewinder which was ultimately used catastrophically in Vietnam When her mom got tired of being a stay at home mom she went to work on the Tomahawk Once when a missile nose needed to be taken offsite for final testing her mother loaded it into the trunk of the family car and set off down a Los Angeles freeway Traffic was heavy and so she stopped off at the mall leaving the missile in the parking lot Piper sketches in the belief systems from Amway's get rich schemes to propaganda in The Rocketeer to evangelism along with fears of a Lemurian takeover and Charles Manson that governed their lives Her memoir is also a search for the truth of the past and what really brought her parents to China Lake with two young daughters a story that reaches back to her father's World War II flights with contraband across Europe Finally A Girl's Guide to Missiles recounts the crossroads moment in a young woman

s life when she finally found a way out of a culture of secrets and fear and out of the desert Sexuality, Intimacy, Power Muriel Dimen, 2023-11-28 This book offers Dimen's classic take on psychosexuality drawing on relational theory feminism and postmodernism with a new foreword by Virginia Goldner and Velleda Ceccoli honouring the late Muriel Dimen and introducing a new audience to her profound legacy For Dimen the shift from dualism to multiplicity that has reshaped a range of disciplines can also be brought to bear on our thinking about sexuality She urges us to return to the open mindedness hiding between the lines and buried in the footnotes of Freud's writings and to replace the determinism into which his thought has hardened with more fluid notions of contingency paradox and thirdness By unveiling the colloquy among psychoanalysis social theory and feminism Dimen challenges clinicians and academicians alike to rethink ideas about gender eroticism and perversion She explores among other topics the relations between lust and libido the limitations of Darwinian thought in theorizing homosexuality the body as projective test and the intimate tangle of love and hate between women Generous clinical examples illustrate the ways in which a radical re-visioning of psychosexuality benefits therapists and patients alike A brilliant example of contemporary psychoanalytic theory at its destabilizing best Sexuality Intimacy Power covers both clinical insights and theoretical rethinking that is invaluable for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and students of women's gender and queer studies A People and a Nation Study Guide, Volume 2, Fifth Edition Norton, 1998-12 Instructor's Guide Robert B. Grant, 2004 A People and a Nation Study Guide Norton, 2000-08 Provides supplementary instruction and increases students' chances for academic success by helping them get the most out of their textbooks Total Cold War Kenneth Alan Osgood, 2006 Osgood focuses on major campaigns such as Atoms for Peace People to People and cultural exchange programs Drawing on recently declassified documents that record U.S. psychological operations in some three dozen countries he tells how U.S. propaganda agencies presented everyday life in America to the world its citizens living full happy lives in a classless society where economic bounty was shared by all Osgood further investigates the ways in which superpower disarmament negotiations were used as propaganda maneuvers in the battle for international public opinion He also reexamines the early years of the space race focusing especially on the challenge to American propagandists posed by the Soviet launch of Sputnik Video Source Book, 2006 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies entertainment general interest education sports recreation fine arts health science business industry children juvenile how to instruction Homeless at Home Gloria Frym, 2001 Poetry HOMELESS AT HOME is a series of letters addressed to a deceased father whose life was shattered and fragmented by war loss and economic instability and further splintered by generational strife and estrangement With an emotionally complex voice that intercuts global events and personal history these letters strive to speak with the father to bring him up to date with current events and with the poetic life of the speaker Gloria Frym's HOMELESS AT HOME is an elevated triumph A deeply moving astutely passionate work of the highest integrity and poetic presence These poems not only grieve the past that was and can never be but focus with alacrity on present states of debris and possibility Their measured rage and acceptance unfold a stately and alarming poetry understated yet overt compassionate yet resistant A deeply intelligent work of profound demand and reward from a writer of immense principle and engagement David Meltzer People and a Nation Roy Blount (Jr),1999 Search & Destroy Jack Hunter,2003 From the early gung ho posturing of John Wayne in The Green Berets to the psychedelic rites of Apocalypse Now and the stark horrors of Platoon and Full Metal Jacket Search these disparate characters are all driven by the same demons and blood drenched flashbacks haunted by the spectre of Nam In graphic films such as Jacob's Ladder Troma's Combat Shock and Antonio Margheriti's Cannibal Apocalypse Viet vets are subjected to the horrors of physical or mental mutation after being exposed to chemical warfare and experimentation in Nam Search Destroy contains illustrated essays on these and hundreds of other movies ranging from the combat traumas graphically displayed in documentaries such as Army Medicine In Vietnam to underground classics to the most garish exploitation movies and gun fixated redneck trash Search Destroy is the ultimate guide to the cinematic legacy of Vietnam a harrowing trip into the heart of darkness Book jacket The Sunday at Home ,1875 A People and a Nation: Since 1865 Mary Beth Norton,1998
