Creating America Textbook Chapter 18:

Creating America Jan Cohn, 2010-11-23 Before movies radio and television challenged the hegemony of the printed word the Saturday Evening Post was the preeminent vehicle of mass culture in the United States And to the extent that a mass medium can be the expression of a single individual this magazine with a peak circulation of almost three million copies a week was the expression of its editor George Horace Lorimer Cohn shows how Lorimer made the Post into a uniquely powerful magazine that both celebrated and helped form the values of the time Creating America's Future James T. Ziegenfuss, 2008 American citizens assume that the future for this country will be a future much like the past beautiful in many respects This optimistic view is now countered by those who see a country in decay struggling to address problems in health care education the environment international affairs and other sectors This book calls on citizens and their leaders to build the future they most desire The future should not happen to citizens but instead be created by citizens In part one this book examines the reasons for future building and the processes for doing so through interactive public sector private sector dialogue and by applying methods of continuous improvement reengineering and visioning In part two Ziegenfuss presents scenarios of America's future that include the country's points of decay trends vision and strategies in each of the parts of America meaning energy health care transportation business housing and urban development education arts and entertainment science environment agriculture international affairs and defense and law and justice Public and private citizens especially students teachers and planners are encouraged to lead the debates with hope and vision defining the future they most desire Book jacket Creating American Reform Judaism Sefton D. Temkin, 1998-09-01 Isaac Mayer Wise 1819 1900 founder of the major institutions of Reform Judaism in America was a man of his time a pioneer in a pioneer's world When he came to America from his childhood Bohemia in 1846 he found fewer than 50 000 Jews and only two ordained rabbis With his sense of mission and tireless energy he set himself to tailoring the vehicle of Reform Judaism to meet the needs of the growing Jewish community Wise strove for unity among American Jews and for a college to train rabbis to serve them The establishment of Hebrew Union College 1875 was the crowning achievement of his life His quest for unity also led him to draw up an American Jewish prayer book Minhag America to found the Central Conference of American Rabbis and to edit two weeklies their editorials breathing fire and energy were no less important in his quest for leadership Here as elsewhere it was his persistence that won him the war where his impetuosity lost him many battles Professor Temkin's writing captures the vigour of Wise's personality and the politics and concerns of contemporary Jewish life and leadership in America Based primarily on material in the American Jewish Archives of the Hebrew Union College this biography is a lively portrait of a rabbi whose singular efforts in many fields made him a pivotal figure in the naturalization of the Jew and Judaism in the New World The book was first published in hardback in 1992 under the title Isaac Mayer Wise Shaping American Judaism The Ethics of Hospitality Helen T. Boursier, 2019-02-15 Set against an ethical theological philosophical framework of the role of love in the Abrahamic tradition Islam Judaism and Christianity The Ethics of Hospitality highlights the personal witness of refugee families seeking asylum from the Northern Triangle in Central America to the U S Their heart wrenching stories include why they fled their homelands their experiences along the arduous overland journey and their inhospitable reception when they arrived to the U S and requested asylum It includes an overview of the systemic connections between the U S and the violence which catapults these families to seek safety The voices of the families join the witness of interreligious volunteers of greater San Antonio who assist the refugee families in diverse capacities and who testify to the mutual blessing they receive when love of God expressed as love of neighbor becomes central to the immigration conversation Ultimately the proposal is that the interreligious community has the privilege and responsibility to respond in love with refugees seeking asylum while also leading the outcry in the public square for their radical welcome American Furniture Oscar P. Fitzgerald, 2017-12-22 Drawing on the latest scholarship this
