Engaging Social Media in China Guobin Yang,Wei Wang,2021-05-01 Introducing the concept of state sponsored platformization this volume shows the complexity behind the central role the party state plays in shaping social media platforms The party state increasingly penetrates commercial social media while aspiring to turn its own media agencies into platforms Yet state sponsored platformization does not necessarily produce the Chinese Communist Party s desired outcomes Citizens continue to appropriate social media for creative public engagement at the same time that more people are managing their online settings to reduce or refuse connection inducing new forms of crafted resistance to hyper social media connectivity The wide ranging essays presented here explore the mobile radio service Ximalaya FM Alibaba s evolution into a multi platform ecosystem livestreaming platforms in the United States and China the role of Twitter in Trump s North Korea diplomacy user generated content in the news media the emergence of new social agents mediating between state and society social media art projects Chinese and US scientists use of social media and reluctance to engage with WeChat Ultimately readers will find that the ten chapters in this volume contribute significant new research and insights to the fast growing scholarship on social media in China at a time when online communication is increasingly constrained by international struggles over political control and privacy issues

Proof of Authenticity: Facts About Blockchain Farabi Shayor,2020-07-29 Distributed technologies work without the necessity of a middleman Until blockchain technology came into the limelight users were forced to exchanged value and trade employing a third party intermediary What started off as a means to solve the barriers around global transaction of currencies is now being evolved into a technological paradigm shift that could potentially impact and improve many forms of industries A lot of people around the world confuses the market dynamics and conditions of cryptocurrencies with the underlying technology Every time the market goes bullish it is branded as a bubble When it corrects by over 80% it is branded as a scam But how many of us looked at the US stock market charts and compared it with the performance of the cryptocurrencies Bitcoin has paved the way for a new technological evolution but is the technology maturing or is it at the brink of destruction What are the real life use cases This book is an attempt to look into the world of decentralisation and why they are beneficial for society As scalability is an essential factor for the existence of blockchain this book sheds light on the current advancement in solving immediate scalability problems and how it could revolutionise the financial and economic sector This is not an attempt to explain speculative use cases In essence it is an attempt to highlight the existing companies that have successfully built a product the startups working around the world to solve the scalability issues around blockchain technology To separate the signal from the noise this book is a must read for the technology enthusiasts Farabi the author of Exponential Progress is the Head of Research at IntelXSys and working as one of the Research Experience Leads for Clinical Research and Innovation CRI module at the Imperial College London He has worked with over 100 companies as a technology consultant and spoken at a number of international conferences around the world

The Mediated Climate Adrienne Russell,2023-08-08 To what extent does journalism deserve blame for the failure to address climate change over the last thirty years Critics point out that climate coverage has often lacked necessary urgency and hewed to traditional notions of objectivity and balance that allowed powerful interests mainly fossil fuel companies to manufacture doubt Climate journalism however developed alongside the digital media landscape which is characterized by rampant misinformation political polarization unaccountable tech companies unchecked corporate power and vast inequalities Under these circumstances journalism struggled and bad actors flourished muddling messages while emissions mounted and societies struggled to avert catastrophe The Mediated Climate explores the places where the climate and information crises meet examining how journalism activism corporations and Big Tech compete to influence the public Adrienne Russell argues that the inadequate response to climate change is intertwined with the profound challenges facing the communications environment She demonstrates that the information crisis is driven not only by technological changes but also by concentrated power that predates the rise of digital media companies Efforts to improve climate coverage must take into account the larger social and material contexts in which journalism operates and the broader power dynamics that shape public discourse Drawing on interviews with journalists and activists Russell considers the ways recent movements are battling misinformation She offers timely recommendations to foster engagement with climate issues and calls on readers to join in efforts to reshape the media landscape to better serve the public interest
