

CI STANDARDS.

THE BASICS AND PRINCIPLES OF THE BMW BRAND DESIGN.

Version 2.0 | March 2020 | For internal use only

- Scope of application:
1. Basics.
  2. The BMW symbols.
  3. Colours.
  4. Type and typography.
  5. The BMW brand claim and handwriting.
  6. Icons.
  7. Layout.
  8. Language usage.
  9. Application examples.

SCOPE OF APPLICATION.

These application principles form the basis for all brand design content and apply to print and digital media as well as trade fairs and events. Physical symbols in dealerships (OCS and ICS) and dealer-initiated events are not affected.

The consistent implementation of an appearance derived from the brand values, which conforms both visually and in terms of content to the CI Standards, generates a unique, high-quality and unified experience typical of the brand for customers worldwide.

The formal and procedural specifications described here are binding components of all BMW communications and label the application as an official brand offer. They are strictly binding for all employees of the BMW Group, as well as all external partners, service providers and business partners who are engaged worldwide in communication on behalf of the BMW Group. They are subjected to regular audits.

Those responsible for communication regarding the respective touchpoints, channels, NSCs and regions are required to check and ensure conformity at regular intervals.

The new BMW Brand Design consists of graphically reworked and digitally optimised symbols for the BMW brand, as well as its subbrands BMW i and BMW M. A new brand typeface, optimised for all applications, will also come into use.

The BMW symbol is protected worldwide and may only be used by BMW AG, its subsidiaries, national distributors, BMW dealerships, as well as authorised workshops (outside EEC).

All symbols, as well as the new BMW Type Next, are available to download from the BMW Group Identity Net. Only the files available in the Identity Net are to be used. The reproduction or alteration of these data sets is not permitted.

All common printing processes are listed in the sample book for the reproduction of the BMW, BMW i and BMW M symbols.
