Madsen, L. Costigan, S. McNicol, Roland Turner, 2016-06-01 The increasing development of partnerships between universities and communities allows the research of academics to become engaged with those around them This book highlights several case studies from a range of disciplines such as psychology social work and education to explore how these mutually beneficial relationships function

Remembering Women Differently Lynée Lewis Gaillet, Helen Gaillet Bailey, 2019-05-23 An examination of women s work rhetorical agency and the construction of female reputation Before the full and honest tale of humanity can be told it will be necessary to uncover the hidden roles of women in it and recover their voices from the forces that have diminished their contributions or even at times deliberately eclipsed them The past half century has seen women rise to claim their equal portion of recognition and Remembering Women Differently addresses not only some of those neglected it examines why they were deliberately erased from history The contributors in this collection study the contributions of fourteen nearly forgotten women from around the globe working in fields that range from art to philosophy from teaching to social welfare from science to the military and how and why those individuals became either marginalized or discounted in a mostly patriarchal world These sterling contributors scholars from a variety of disciplines rhetoricians historians compositionists and literary critics employ feminist research methods in examining women s work rhetorical agency and the construction of female reputation By recovering these voices and remembering the women whose contributions have made our civilization better and more whole this work seeks to ensure that women s voices are never silenced again Pedagogies of Interconnectedness Isis Nusair, Barbara L. Shaw, 2025-05-13 A generation of scholar teacher activists have moved beyond collaborating in theory to embodying engaging in and sharing how they practice their pedagogy Isis Nusair and Barbara L. Shaw edit essays that link feminist queer anti racist decolonial and disability theory and practice while using intersectional transnational and interdisciplinary approaches to explore how the personal remains political The contributors describe ways of building communities within and beyond academic programs and examine what it means to engage in community building work and action across institutional boundaries In Part One the essayists focus on the centrality of community building and reinterpreting bodies of knowledge with students staff faculty and community members Part Two looks at bringing transnational approaches to feminist collaborations in ways that challenge the classroom s central place in knowledge production Part Three explores organic collaborations in and beyond the classroom A practical and much needed resource
