Research Reports in Belizean History and Anthropology, 2015      Cxc Past Papers 00-02 Macmillan Publishers Limited, Pan Macmillan, 2004-11      How Empire Shaped Us Antoinette Burton, Dane Kennedy, 2016-01-28 Few historical subjects have generated such intense and sustained interest in recent decades as Britain's imperial past. What accounts for this preoccupation? Why has it gained such purchase on the historical imagination? How has it endured even as its subject slips further into the past? In seeking to answer these questions, the proposed volume brings together some of the leading figures in the field: historians of different generations, different nationalities, different methodological and theoretical perspectives, and different ideological persuasions. Each addresses the relationship between their personal development as historians of empire and the larger forces and events that helped to shape their careers. The result is a book that investigates the connections between the past and the present, the private and the public, the professional practices of historians and the political environments within which they take shape. This intellectual genealogy of the recent historiography of empire will be of great value to anyone studying or researching in the field of imperial history.

Voices and Visions of Education: Heroes, Leaders, and Elders Charles H. Wheatley OBE PhD, 2020-02-14 From the birth of a formal education system through the end of slavery in the early nineteenth century to today's struggles to incorporate technology into classrooms, this book delivers a detailed history of schooling in the British Virgin Islands. Charles H. Wheatley OBE PhD, a lifelong educator and school administrator, has been practicing his craft since 1955 when the first Education Act was passed in the Virgin Islands Legislature. He puts the classroom to life on the printed page. The author highlights the struggles and triumphs of the leaders, elders, and heroes in the growth of the educational system, focusing on the period from 1834 to 2016. On this journey, you will hear various voices of British Virgin Islanders as they fought for better educational opportunities for the children of the territory, and you will see faces of change as society evolved. Each chapter addresses issues in education from a historical perspective with the characteristics of each historical period, clarifying the roots from which our educational growth started. Trace the path of the British Virgin Islands' development through the prism of the educational strides it made while responding to massive demographic, social, and technological change.

Environmental and Sustainability Education (ESE) in the English-Speaking Caribbean Therese Ferguson, Sharon Bramwell-Lalor, 2024-12-09 This book offers readers a diversity of perspectives, experiences, and practical examples from various facets of Environmental and Sustainability Education (ESE) that can propel practice, further research, and inform decision making in the region, thus making for more cogent and effective ESE. The Caribbean region is comprised of what is said to be the largest number of Small Island Developing States (SIDS) together with the non-island nations of Belize, Guyana, and Suriname. Although diverse with respect to governance, size, topography, and income, the Caribbean region has a common set of geographic and socio-economic characteristics that make it vulnerable to environmental hazards, economic challenges, and social instability. Further to these particular vulnerabilities, are various phenomena that pose critical sustainability challenges two of which are climate change and crime and violence. Consequently responsive and relevant ESE is needed to address these issues through knowledge enhancement, attitudinal change, skills development and behaviour change. As we seek solutions, this text brings together various empirical and theoretical contributions focused primarily on the English speaking Caribbean region that explore a number of areas such as ESE pedagogy, teacher education, values education and progress evaluation. This volume will be a key resource for educators, policymakers, scholars and advanced students of ESE as well as those interested in protecting our planet. It was originally published as a special issue of Environmental Education Research. Cxc Past Papers 95-98: Caribbean History (Basic and General) Caribbean Examinations Council, Caribbean Examinations Council Staff, 2000-10-01 Equitable Education for Marginalized Youth in Latin America and the Caribbean Stacey N. J. Blackman, 2022-09-02. This edited volume examines the thrust toward equity in education for marginalized and out of school youth as well as youth with disabilities in countries located in the Global South. Using a critical cross cultural lens to interrogate the historical, empirical and theoretical discourses associated with achieving UNESCO's equity in education agenda, the book showcases the work of scholars from developed and developing nations in examining inclusive education. Drawing attention to the nature, impact and effects of marginalization, the book ultimately demonstrates the ability of education systems in the Global South to be innovative and agile despite current resource challenges. This text will benefit scholars, academics and students in the fields of international and comparative education, education policy and inclusion and special educational needs education more broadly. Those involved with Caribbean and Latin American studies, the sociology of education and diaspora studies in general will also benefit from this volume. Caribbean History Caribbean Examination Council, 2016 Caribbean History Caribbean Examinations Council, 2010 CSEC Past Papers Caribbean Examinations Council, 2011 Caribbean History Caribbean Examinations Council, 2008 Caribbean History Caribbean Examinations Council, 1990 CSEC PAST PAPERS 2020-2023 CARIBBEAN HISTORY, 2024 CXC Study Guide: Caribbean History for CSEC® Lennox Honychurch, Caribbean Examinations Council, 2018-08-23.
