Astrachan,2019-11-29 Naming the Gods Cy Twombly s Passionate Poiesis concerns itself with the contemporary art work of Cy Twombly as seen against the deep background of classical Greek mythology In particular the two entwined figures and images of Orpheus lyre player lover and journeyer to the underworld and Dionysos Bacchus god of wine ecstasy and madness are taken up as the two principal thematic leitmotifs which animate and overarchingly inform Twombly s entire artistic oeuvre across all the mediums in which he worked both literally and symbolically from the early 1950 s until the last series of brilliantly colored paintings he made just before his death in 2011 His preoccupations with the rhythms of language poetry and writing on the one hand and his tendencies towards wildly expressive gestural abstraction on the other ultimately combine in his creation of a genuinely new and original performative aesthetic which unites and connects the powerful impulses of mark making painting and assembling with the basic human needs for individuation realization and redemption In a long and rich tradition of sublime poiesis spanning ancient Greek tragedy through Romanticism the poets Friedrich Hlderlin and Rainer Maria Rilke and into our own fragmented and imperiled postmodernist times Twombly s artistic corpus is viewed as providing a radically renovative relationship and practice for honoring working with and valorizing both psyche and matter the inner and outer worlds as well as with delimiting a uniquely germinative and seminal space for the further enactment of creative human doing making producing and being in reciprocal and intimate relationship with the otherness

of things nature and the environment Gary D Astrachan Ph D is a clinical psychologist and Jungian psychoanalyst in private practice in Portland Maine He is a faculty member and supervising and training analyst at the C G Jung Institutes in Boston and in Switzerland and lectures and teaches widely throughout North America Latin America and Europe He is a founding member of the C G Jung Center of Brunswick Maine and is also an independent curator of contemporary art installations and exhibitions He is the author of numerous scholarly articles in professional journals and books and writes particularly on the relationship between analytical psychology and Greek mythology poetry painting film postmodernism and critical theory
