Conservative Thinkers from All Souls College Oxford Richard Davenport-Hines, 2022 Investigates historic strands of conservative thought and responds to the radical changes which many think have transformed the Conservative party into a populist movement upholding English nationalism All Souls College Oxford was one of the meeting points of English public intellectuals in the twentieth century Its Fellows prided themselves on agreeing in everything except their opinions They included Cabinet Ministers from all the three major parties and academics of diverse political allegiances who met for frank conversations and lively disagreements Davenport Hines investigates historic strands of conservative thought aversion to rapid and disruptive change mistrust of majority opinions prizing of community loyalties and pride over the assertion of aggressive individualism the recession of the Church of England and the impact of militarism Conservative Thinkers from All Souls College Oxford draws on the ideas of two conservative thinkers Trimmer Halifax and Michael Oakeshott to examine the conservative assumptions ideas writings and influence of seven Fellows of All Souls from the last century Their brands of conservatism regarded popular democracy as an unavoidable necessity which must be managed rather than loved Their scepticism about the rule of the people was rooted in a meritocratic commitment to the government of the wise They disliked plutocracy regretted consumerism and loathed sloppy and self serving thought All were more or less dissatisfied with the workings of the Westminster parliamentary model e conservative assumptions ideas writings and influence of seven Fellows of All Souls from the last century Their brands of conservatism regarded popular democracy as an unavoidable necessity which must be managed rather than loved Their scepticism about the rule of the people was rooted in a meritocratic commitment to the government of the wise They disliked plutocracy regretted consumerism and loathed sloppy and self serving thought All were more or less dissatisfied with the workings of the Westminster parliamentary model e conservative assumptions ideas writings and influence of seven Fellows of All Souls from the last century Their brands of conservatism regarded popular democracy as an unavoidable necessity which must be managed rather than loved Their scepticism about the rule of the people was rooted in a meritocratic commitment to the government of the wise They disliked plutocracy regretted consumerism and loathed sloppy and self serving thought All were more or less dissatisfied with the workings of the Westminster parliamentary model h the workings of the Westminster parliamentary model Fighting Different Wars Janet S. K. Watson, 2004-02-19 The popular idea of the First World War is a story of disillusionment and pointless loss This vision however dates from well after the Armistice In this 2004 book Janet Watson separates out wartime from retrospective accounts and contrasts war as lived experience for soldiers women and non combatants with war as memory comparing men s and women s responses and tracing the re creation of the war experience in later writings Using a wealth of published and unpublished wartime and retrospective texts Watson contends that participants tended to construct their experience lived and remembered as either work or service In fact far from having a united front many active participants were in fact fighting different wars and this process only continued in the decades following peace Fighting Different Wars is an interesting richly textured and multi layered book which will be compelling reading for all those interested in the First World War

The Dardanelles Campaign, 1915 Fred R. van Hartesveldt, 1997-11-20 The passage of time has not slowed the production of books and articles about World War I This volume provides a guide to the historiography and bibliography of the Dardanelles Campaign including the Gallipoli invasion It focuses on military history but also provides information on political histories that give significant attention to the handling of the Dardanelles Campaign The opening section of the book provides background information about the campaign discusses the major sources of information and lays out the major interpretative disputes A comprehensive annotated bibliography follows This book nicely complements the two earlier volumes on World War I battles The Battle of Jutland by Eugene Rasor and The Battles of the Somme by Fred R van Hartesveldt

Reader's Guide to Military History Charles Messenger, 2013-10-31 This book contains some 600 entries on a range of topics from ancient Chinese warfare to late 20th century intervention operations Designed for a wide variety of users it encompasses general reviews of aspects of military organization and science as well as specific wars and conflicts The book examines naval and air warfare as well as significant individuals including commanders theorists and war leaders Each entry includes a listing of additional publications on the topic accompanied by an article discussing these publications with reference to their particular emphases strengths and limitations

The Auditory Culture Reader Michael Bull, Les Back, 2020-05-31 The first edition of The Auditory Culture Reader offered an introduction to both classical and recent work on auditory culture laying the foundations for new academic research in sound studies Today interest and research on sound thrives across disciplines such as music anthropology geography sociology and cultural studies as well as within the new interdisciplinary sphere of sound studies itself This second edition reflects on the changes to the field since the first edition and offers a vast amount of new content a user friendly organization which highlights key themes and concepts and a methodologies section which addresses practical questions for students setting out on auditory explorations All essays are accessible to non experts and encompass scholarship from leading figures in the field discussing issues relating to sound and listening from the broadest set of interdisciplinary perspectives Inspiring students and researchers attentive to sound in their work newly commissioned and classical excerpts bring urban research and ethnography alive with sensory case studies that open up a world beyond the
