P. Khan NMD,

MD,2016-11-03 In a very real sense each of us is a mandala Some of us have intricate patterns and colors reflecting the complex experiences of our lives Some of us are simple arcs of existence with minimalist designs and subtle colors and every possible combination in between Each of us is as unique as our individual DNA which strangely in cross section on electron microscopy looks like a mandala But unlike our DNA our mandalas are constantly shifting shapes and colors as we make our choices as to the best way to live our lives All designs of the mandala have a border the interface we have with one another and the material world And each mandala has a center the singularity where the trinity of mind body and spirit integrates and unites with the divine self The Inside-Out Makeover Andrea Clark,2005-06 Acupuncture Homeopathy Yoga and Meditation what could they possibly have in common Each has the ability to bring those who receive them to a deeper sense of inner balance contentment and self acceptance The road to perfection is strewn with makeovers gone bad Although perfection is the goal outer change may not be the way to achieve it Altering small pieces of the outside often leaves the inner self unchanged In an easy to understand question and answer format The Inside Out Makeover introduces ten tools which when used alone or in combination allow the participant to achieve permanent inner transformation A new more positive perception of the world begins to emerge when healing the whole self becomes the goal The need for outer perfection is not so important when inner contentment reigns Discover ways in which counseling releases you from negative patterns acupuncture and homeopathy dig to the root of the problem to cure chronic illness herbal remedies release deep seated toxins Share in case studies which demonstrate clients personal journeys to inner health Use the resources to delve deeper into preferred tools Finally pack your bag with those personal tools which achieve the ultimate makeover love of self
