'Dissonanz' author collective,2015-02-06 While German tourists visiting Dresden are no longer quite as shocked by the old buildings they see everywhere they do still irritate tourists from abroad Everything around the Frauenkirche Church of Our Lady smells of renovation and Disneyland so one is made aware of the reconstruction However at the very latest questions start to arise on the way to Pillnitz via the villa quarter Blasewitz and the Blaue Wunder Blue Wonder Bridge How could all of this have survived the firestorm After all it was a second Hiroshima wasn't it Dresden is legend a beautiful innocent city of art and culture and the German victimisation narrative without peer bombed unnecessarily shortly before the end of the war with hundreds of thousands dead It is a lie of Allied war crimes with a rain of phosphorus and low flying fighters targeting the civilian population The Allied air raids of 13 to 15 February 1945 are a fixed point of reference in Dresden's memorial culture Over the decades they have provided its climax and at any given time an expression of the prevailing politics of history The texts in this e book afford an overview of the substantive contents of and the developments in Dresden's remembrance policies as well as furnishing a fundamental critique of current memorial politics of both the city and Germany as a whole Dresden presents an image of itself as a symbol of peace and reconciliation and in the meantime also as a symbol for accurate memorialisation as opposed to the historically revisionist version of the Nazis The annual neo Nazi marches have played no small part in provoking a re assessment of some of the legends leading to facts being researched and the Nazi history of Dresden described and defined Is this enough Shouldn't the commemoration itself be abolished Catalog of
