Sanchez,2009 This volume examines the various linguistic and cultural problems which point towards the practical impossibility of conveying in one language exactly what was originally said in another The author provides an exhaustive discussion of Spanish translations from English texts including non standard registers Equivalence across languages that most elusive of terms in the whole theory of translation is discussed in terms of linguistic equivalence textual equivalence cultural equivalence and pragmatic equivalence Other aspects studied include how translation has been perceived over the centuries the differences and the similarities between a writer and a translator plus a detailed examination of translation as process all of which bring the problems of literary translation into perspective Expanding Cinemas Eduardo Ledesma,2024-12-01 This is the first book on experimental cinemas of Latin American and Spain to offer a comprehensive look at old and new technologies including Super 8 VHS cell phones virtual reality artificial intelligence and more From the militant films of the 1960s to today s expanded reality experiences filmmakers in Argentina Spain Cuba Colombia Brazil and Mexico have continually used alternative formats both to dialogue with international movements and to counter commercial cinematic trends To make this argument and cover this vast geographic and historical terrain Eduardo Ledesma adopts a transnational and intermedial approach examining exchanges and associations between cineastes to better understand how their films were created and circulated Ledesma works to untangle both the relations between media and the associations of experimental cinema to cultural phenomena such as diaspora exile displacement and immigration Throughout the book connections are further made to other global avant garde and alternative cinemas and formats including in the United States Limits of Liberation Elina Vuola,2002-09-19 How far are the real lives of millions of poor women really catered for in liberation and feminist theologies Vuola argues here that traditional liberation theology s notion of praxis as in L Boff and E Dussel is limited by its essentialist notion of poor and its neglect of the issue of poor women s reproductive rights Classical feminist theologies on the other hand are fraught with their own essentialist notions women s experience Both discourses are inadequate to deal with poor women s suffering widespread maternal mortality high rates of botched illegal abortions and an overall lack of reproductive rights As a response to this lack Vuola nurtures a form of Latin American feminist liberation theology that addresses directly the suffering and death of these millions of women Judaica Americana Nathan M.
