

Autobiography of a Super Hero

On September 15th 1995, I was born into a warm and loving family. My father (James Copper) was a taxi driver, and my mother (Kate Copper) worked at the local bank. We were poor in those days, and both my parents worked long hours to make sure we had an exciting childhood. I remember one time, I was playing outside with my brother (Harry), when he came tumbling off his bike. Interestingly, I remember having this sudden urge to help him out. From that day on, I always had that impulse to save and help other people, even if it was simply crossing an old lady over the road. At that time, I didn't realise I was 'different', until I started school. That was when things began to change for me!...

The Days of My Life: An Autobiography Margaret Oliphant Wilson Oliphant,2020-09-28 I WAS going home from the village and it was an autumn evening just after sunset when every crop was cut and housed in our level country and when the fields of stubble and browned grass had nothing on them except here and there a tree They say our bare flats in Cambridgeshire are neither picturesque nor beautiful I cannot say for that but I know no landscape has ever caught my eye like the long line of sunburnt wiry grass and the great wide arch above with all its shades of beautiful color There were no hedgerows to skirt the path on which I was and I saw nothing between me and the sky save a solitary figure stalking along the highway and in the other direction the clump of trees which surrounded Cottiswoode the sky in the west was still full of the colors of the sunset and from the horizon it rose upward in a multitude of tints and shades the orange and red melting into a rosy flush which contrasted for a while and then fell into the sweet calm peaceful tone of the full blue In the time of the year and the look of the night there was alike that indescribable composure and satisfaction which are in the sunny evenings after harvest the work was done the day was fading everything was going home the rooks sailed over the sky and the laborer trudged across the moor Labor was over and provision made and the evening and the night peace and refreshment and rest were coming for every man I do not suppose I noticed this at the time but I have the strongest impression of it all in my remembrance now And I was passing along as I always did quickly and perhaps with a firmer and a steadier step than was usual to girls of my years swinging in my hand a bit of briony which for the sake of its beautiful berries I was carrying home but which stood a good chance of being destroyed before we got there not taking leisure to look much about me thinking of nothing particular with a little air of the superior the lady of the manor in my independent carriage a little pride of proprietorship in my firm footstep
