South Africa and United Nations Peacekeeping Offensive Operations Garcia, Antonio, 2018-08-16 The creation of the Force Intervention Brigade FIB as the sharp tactical edge of the United Nations Stabilisation Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo MONUSCO tasked with the neutralising of armed groups was a watershed moment in the history of modern peace missions What was more significant was that sub Saharan national leaders were instrumental in the creation of the FIB South Africa Tanzania and Malawi but lacked the resources to deploy such a force and consequently the brigade was deployed under the banner of the UN With the legacy of an African Renaissance and its role in the conception of the FIB South Africa remains a critical player in international peace and security in sub Saharan Africa and therefore holds a key strategic role in achieving the FIB s objectives This comes at a critical time where blue helmets are increasingly exposed to complex and challenging security contexts The aim of this work is to provide a conceptual model for South African military future operations and UN offensive peacekeeping operations In this undertaking a layer of military and Clausewitzian theory is added to offensive peacekeeping operations Furthermore there are sections on operational constructs capstone and operating concepts doctrine and structural elements as well a section on mine action This book contributes towards an understanding of the nature of modern strategy through the lens of UN offensive peacekeeping operations and provides insights into operational challenges

Johnson, 2016-06-09 In July 2011 South Sudan was granted independence and became the world s newest country Yet just two and a half years after this momentous decision the country was in the grips of renewed civil war and political strife Hilde F Johnson served as Special Representative of the Secretary General and Head of the United Nations Mission in the Republic of South Sudan from July 2011 until July 2014 and as such she was witness to the many challenges which the country faced as it struggled to adjust to its new autonomous state In this book she provides an unparalleled insider s account of South Sudan s descent from the ecstatic celebrations of July 2011 to the outbreak of the disastrous conflict in December 2013 and the early bloody phase of the fighting Johnson s frequent personal and private contacts at the highest levels of government accompanied by her deep knowledge of the country and its history make this a unique eyewitness account of the turbulent first three years of the world s newest and yet most fragile country

Intrusive Impartiality Assistant Professor in the Department of Political Science Marion Laurence, 2024-11-29 Impartiality is a central norm in United Nations peace operations that has long been associated with passive monitoring of cease fires and peace agreements In the twenty first century however its meaning has been stretched to allow for a range of forceful intrusive and ideologically prescriptive practices In Intrusive Impartiality Marion Laurence explains how these new ways of being impartial emerge how they spread within and across missions and how they become institutionalized across UN peace operations In doing so Laurence sheds light on controversial changes in peacekeeping practice and provides an innovative framework for studying authority and change in global governance

The Use of Force in UN Peacekeeping Peter Nadin, 2018-02-06 This edited volume provides a detailed and nuanced analysis of UN peacekeeping and the use of force to inform a better understanding of the complex and interconnected issues at stake for the UN community Peacekeeping is traditionally viewed as a largely passive military activity governed by the principles of impartiality, consent and the minimum use of force Today most large UN Peacekeeping Operations are only authorized to use force in defence of their mandates and to protect civilians under imminent threat of physical violence Recently with the deployment of the Force Intervention Brigade in the DRC the UN has gone beyond peacekeeping and into the realm of peace enforcement These developments have brought to the fore questions regarding the use of force in the context of peacekeeping The key questions addressed in this book examine not only the utility of force but also the dilemmas and constraints inherent to the purposive use of force at a strategic, operational and tactical level Should UN peacekeepers exercise military initiative Is UN peacekeeping capable of undertaking offensive military operations If so then under what circumstances should peacekeepers use force How should force be wielded And against whom With chapters written by experts in the field this comprehensive volume will be of great use and interest to postgraduate students, academics and experts in international security, the UN peacekeeping and diplomacy

United Nations Peacekeeping Oldrich Bureš, 2008

50 Years Of Singapore And The United Nations Tommy Koh, Li Lin Chang, Joanna Koh, 2015-08-05 In 2015 Singapore marks the 50th anniversary of its independence and the United Nations UN the 70th anniversary of its founding This book celebrates 50 years of a mutually beneficial relationship between Singapore and the UN In the early years of Singapore's independence the UN system provided Singapore with many benefits which were helpful in Singapore's journey from the Third World to the First As Singapore has made progress in its developmental journey it is now able to give back to the international community through programmes such as the Singapore Cooperation Programme (SCP) under which officials from developing countries are offered training in areas which are beneficial to their countries Singapore has actively contributed to improving global governance and strengthening institutions that are important to the management of global issues at the UN, IMF, World Bank, IMO etc The Singapore Government has also sent its soldiers and police officers to participate in UN's peace keeping and peace making operations This volume brings together 45 essays by Singaporeans who have made or are making important contributions to the work of the UN system The reader will be able to learn about the UN as seen through the eyes of Singaporeans who have served as Ambassadors to the United Nations in New York and Geneva, the World Trade Organization or as professional staff in the various specialised agencies, programmes and funds that are part of the UN We hope that the life stories and experiences shared by the essayists will remind readers that although Singapore is a very small country we are a good global citizen and have tried to make this a better world
