for further research Achebe`s Things Fall Apart- diagnosis of decay Andrea Fischer,2003-03-08 Seminar paper from the year 2003 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2 B University of Tübingen New Philology Fakultät language English abstract Things Fall Apart is Chinua Achebe`s first novel It is about the land of the Ibo in the eastern region of present day Nigeria in the period between 1850 1900 It is the period shortly before and after the arrival of the white men in this part of West Africa Achebe`s nineteenth century Africa witnesses the end of an era and the beginning of twentieth century Europeanization with all its implied consequences for another stage the future history of postcolonial Africa Things Fall Apart gives us a vision of the Ibo`s life in a part of Africa called Umuofia its history and their cultural religious and political traditions Also it allows us an insight into the differences and problems between the established tradition that is the Ibo tradition and the emerging traditions of the white colonizers Things Fall Apart is not only the drama of a whole society but it also reflects the tragedy of one man Okonkwo that is worked out of his personal conflicts as well as out of the contrariness of his destiny This novel shows the changes which have taken place in Ibo as a result of the encounter between Europe and Africa during the imperial colonial period Things Fall Apart consists of three parts the first part is set in Umuofia before the arrival of the white men In the second part the protagonist`s Okonkwo`s banishment from Umuofia to Mbanta is dramatized and the arrival of the white men is reported The third section shows the tragic fall of Okonkwo and the decay of the old ways of life in Ibo society In my essay I want to discuss whether Achebe`s novel is a diagnosis of decay or rather a report on Modernization In my first section I want to give a short insight into the traditional Ibo society The second part will focus on the thematic of decay both for the society as well as for Okonkwo In my next part I will concentrate on aspects of Modernization In the last part of this essay I will try bring this novel in a broader context and will try to examine the aspects of decay and Modernization on the basis of Foucault`s discourse theory and therefore his theory on Modernization Emerging Perspectives on Chinua Achebe Ernest Emenyonu,2004 This compendium of 37 essays provides global perspectives of Achebe as an artist with a proper sense of history and an imaginative writer with an inviolable sense of cultural mission and political commitment Things Fall Apart Chinua Achebe,1994-09-01 A true classic of world literature A masterpiece that has inspired generations of writers in Nigeria across Africa and around the world Barack Obama African literature is incomplete and unthinkable without the works of Chinua Achebe Toni Morrison A magical writer one of the greatest of the twentieth century Margaret Atwood Named one of America`s most loved novels by PBS`s The Great American Read Things Fall Apart is the first of three novels in Chinua Achebe`s critically acclaimed African Trilogy It is a classic narrative about Africa`s cataclysmic encounter with Europe as it establishes a colonial presence on the continent Told through the fictional experiences of Okonkwo a wealthy and fearless Igbo warrior of Umuofia in the late 1800s Things Fall Apart explores one man`s futile resistance to the devaluing of his Igbo traditions by British political and religious forces and his despair as his community capitulates to the powerful new order With more than twenty million copies sold and translated into fifty seven languages Things Fall Apart provides one of the most illuminating and permanent monuments to African experience Achebe does not only capture life in a pre colonial African village he conveys the tragedy of the loss of that world while broadening our understanding of our contemporary realities

Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart - Bridging Cultural Differences Andrea Fischer, 2004-07-13 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 1 7 A University of Tübingen New Philology language English abstract Usually when we encounter such a book we try to solve those problems with the help of literary strategies and approaches like literary theory reading about the author and the epoch studying of interpretations of the work deconstructing the text and looking at the effects of the text with regard to us readers Besides these literary strategies which lead to an interpretation of the text a linguistic analysis of literary texts helps us either to get a full understanding of the text or to comprehend why we have problems understanding the text However the linguistic analysis of literature is not an interpretation it is more an explanation of how it means and why it means what it does Linguistics demonstrates why a text is interpreted in this or that way and makes clearer what the underlying problems in the interpretation are The main aim of this essay is to show and explain the linguistic strategies and mechanisms that enable us to bridge the cultural differences to demonstrate how cultural knowledge is triggered off and to show how it is possible to learn something about the culture The goal of this essay is to show that readers can understand the text although they have no knowledge of the culture at all In the first part of this work I will settle the question why it is difficult for us to understand the culture behind the text and give a brief account of the problems with which we are confronted in the process of learning about the culture in the book In the second and third passage I will introduce and settle the theoretical basis of linguistic strategies that help us to understand the text and to reconcile the cultural contrasts The following part will show the practical application of the linguistic strategies with examples of Achebe's Things Fall Apart

The Wisdom of Many Wolfgang Mieder, Alan Dundes, 1994 The Wisdom of Many explores research on proverbs of many cultures More than twenty essays written by scholars of such diverse disciplines as folklore literature psychology linguistics and anthropology illustrate the significance of traditional proverbs and trace variations of proverbs over time drawing on African Chinese Spanish Finnish Irish and Yiddish examples

Teaching Literature Using Dialogic Literary Argumentation Matt Seymour, Theresa Thanos, George E. Newell, David Bloome, 2020-04-23 Introducing a new framework for teaching and learning literature in secondary schools this book presents Dialogic Literary Argumentation as an inquiry based approach to engage students in communicating and exploring ideas about literature As a process of discovery Dialogic Literary Argumentation facilitates conversation arguing to learn as a method to support students diverse perspectives and engagement with one another in order to develop individual and collective understandings of literature and their place in the world Covering both the theoretical foundation and application of this method this book demonstrates how to apply Dialogic Literary Argumentation to teach literature in a way that foregrounds dialogue learning through inquiry diverse views listening to others and engagement with our communities Ideal for preservice teachers in literacy methods courses and practicing teachers it features real world cases discussions of the principles presented resource lists and conversation starters for professional learning communities professional development and teacher education

The Eighties Frank Bongiorno, 2017-01-12 Winner of the ACT Book of the Year Award Shortlisted for the Ernest Scott Prize and CHASS Australia Prize It was the era of Hawke and Keating Kylie and INXS the America's Cup and the Bicentenary It was perhaps the most controversial decade in Australian history with high flying entrepreneurs booming and busting torrid debates over land rights and immigration the advent of AIDS a harsh recession and the rise of the New Right It was a time when Australians fought for social change on union picket lines at rallies for women's rights and against nuclear weapons and as part of a new environmental movement And then there were the events that left many scratching their heads Joh for Canberra the Australia Card Cliff Young In The Eighties Frank Bongiorno brings all this and more to life He sheds new light on both the ordinary and extraordinary things that happened to Australia and Australians during this liveliest of decades The definitive account of an inspired infuriating decade George Megalogenis A very impressive achievement The Monthly Meaty and entertaining The Australian

An Analysis of Chinua Achebe's An Image of Africa Clare Clarke, 2017-07-05 Few works of scholarship have so comprehensively recast an existing debate as Chinua Achebe's essay on Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness Achebe a highly distinguished Nigerian novelist and university teacher looked with fresh eyes at a novel that was set in Africa but in which Africans appear only as onlookers or as indistinguishable savages Dismissing the prevailing portrayal of Joseph Conrad as a liberal hero whose anti-imperialist views insulated him from significant criticism Achebe recast the Polish author as a bloody racist in an analysis so cogent it changed the way in which his discipline looked not only at Conrad but also at all works with settings indicative of racial conflict The creative contribution of Achebe's essay lies in delving far beneath the surface of Conrad's novel he not only generated new and highly influential hypotheses about the author's modes of thought and motivations but also redefined the entire debate over Heart of Darkness Just because the novel had been accepted into the canon and now falls into the class of permanent literature Achebe says does not mean we should not question it closely or criticize its author

Cultural Representations of the Second Wife Jo Parnell, 2023-12-11 Cultural Representation of the Second Wife Literature Stage and Screen is a multifaceted interdisciplinary cross-cultural work that provides insights into the realities of second wives the world over This book allows the reader a three-dimensional view of the second wife experience It asks What does it mean and what does it feel like to be a second wife in a polygamous union or in a monogamous partnership Is there a difference Together the writers in this book cleverly create an in-depth study of the subject through the productions referred to in the title to offer a different approach to the popularly held views of the second wife The book addresses the intricacies customs practices and lifestyles of the various Eastern and Western cultures and demonstrates the abilities of the Humanities to connect and interrelate with other disciplines as well as with the

reader's own world Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors, 2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources Things Fall Apart Chinua Achebe, 2009 The contemporary African writer's classic novel depicting the destruction of traditional tribal life by the white man Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart Isidore Okpewho, 2003 Chinua Achebe is Africa's most prominent writer and Things Fall Apart 1958 is the most renowned and widely read African novel in the global literary canon The essays collected in this casebook explore the work's artistic multicultural and global significance from a variety of critical perspectives A Critical Analysis of "Things Fall Apart" by Chinua Achebe Silvia Elias, 2014-11-04 Seminar paper from the year 2013 in the subject Literature Basics University of Alexandria Faculty of Arts English Dept language English abstract Throughout History there has been a desire for main stream white culture to explore and expand to new areas with many different objectives in mind Many were looking for new lands that had untold riches while others were spreading cultural or religious beliefs in an attempt to gain support for their beliefs Sometimes foreign societies were welcomed because they brought with them new technologies and ideas to improve the natives lives But it was just as likely that these new ideas would have negative effects causing many people's lives to change forever Things Fall Apart 1958 by Chinua Achebe was a perfect example of what effect new ideas and technology can have on societies that have been isolated for generations and have created a unique culture and society because of this exclusion and segregation The white man is very clever He came quietly and peaceably with his religion We were amused at his foolishness and allowed him to stay Now he has won our brothers and our clan can no longer act like one He has put a knife on the things that held us together and we have fallen apart The protagonist's pride was bruised when he went back to his homeland and found that his tribe had changed vastly His people's new beliefs customs culture religion and society were foreign to him because they adjusted over time to the Christians ways His world was literally turned upside down The fact is although some missionaries may have had an honest intention to bring salvation to the Ibo British policy in colonizing Africa tends to suggest that the real reason for introducing Christianity was to make the natives easier to subvert all the while giving the operation an air of legitimacy The colonists had much to gain from a colonized Africa including abundant natural resources and workers to tend farms and Dialogic Literary Argumentation in High School Language Arts Classrooms David Bloome, George Newell, Alan R Hirvela, Tzu-Jung Lin, 2019-09-23 Written by leaders in the field of literacy and language arts Education this volume defines Dialogic Literary Argumentation outlines its key principles and provides in depth analysis of classroom social practices and teacher student interactions to illustrate the possibilities of a social perspective for a new vision of teaching reading and understanding literature Dialogic Literary Argumentation builds on the idea of arguing to learn to engage teachers and students in using literature to explore what it means to be human situated in the world at a particular time and place Dialogic Literary Argumentation fosters deep and complex understandings of literature by engaging students in dialogical social practices that foster dialectical spaces intertextuality and an unpacking of taken for granted assumptions about rationality and personhood Dialogic Literary Argumentation offers new ways to engage in argumentation aligned with new ways to read literature in the high school classroom Offering theory and analysis to shape the future use of literature in secondary classrooms this text will be great interest to researchers graduate and postgraduate students academics and libraries in the fields of English and Language Arts Education Teacher Education Literacy Studies Writing and Composition

Report from Swaneng Hill Patrick Van Rensburg, 1974 Personal account of an experimental educational reform programme of secondary education and vocational training undertaken in Botswana in 1962 describes a series of innovations such as the establishment of training brigades for primary school leavers unaccommodated by the small secondary school system and asserts that secondary education should be a focal point of economic development and that educational policies should be coordinated with programmes for the creation of relevant employment opportunities Illustrations W.B. Yeats "The Second Coming". Analysis of an Apocalyptic Poem Anna Stumpe, 2015-09-08 Seminar paper from the year 2012 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature Martin Luther University Institut für Anglistik und Amerikanistik course William Butler Yeats language English abstract William Butler Yeats did not just believe in the apocalypse he was known for his prophetic insights and imaginative visions of the breakdown of civilization As the Mesoamerican Long Count Calendar ends on December 21 in 2012 many people suggest this date marks the end of the world or of human civilization It is of a certain interest that already in the early twentieth century Yeats was concerned with this kind of apocalyptic worldview The Second Coming therefore is one of the poems that also represents his understanding of the apocalypse which is not comparable to those who believe in the prophecy of the Mayan calendar For him the apocalypse is always connected with genuine spiritual revelation and with vision as it is the literal translation of the Greek word Howes Kelly 2006 52 With this iconic prophetic poem he is not only regarded a public hero but also deviates from established popular beliefs wherefore he is also named the first iconoclastic Modernist in English writing The stunning violent imagery and terrifying ritualistic language makes The Second Coming an archetypal poem about the return of history with violence Likewise as it was composed in 1919 and published in 1920 it represents Yeats immediate reaction to the political instable situation of Ireland England and Europe after Civil War Russian Revolution and WWI In consequence to that The Second Coming is one the most obscure works of Yeats hence quite difficult to understand in the first place For this reason firstly this paper concentrates on the historical and political background information which is fundamental to the poem s understanding Secondly it is this examination s method to analyze and interpret the poem s form structure and images At that not only The Second Coming in its structure but also this chapter divides into three parts from which each displays another phase in the development of the poet's state of mind. Consequently, each line of The Second Coming is examined both to explain the poet's development and to prove the central issues of W. B. Yeats' poem. Eventually, this paper provides a conclusion wherein its argumentation is summarized. This summary consequently also states the poem's effect on the reader.
