advocates for a novel doctrine of total lawfare as part of a comprehensive approach to modern hybrid warfare The book begins by introducing the military concept of limited lawfare in the context of modern geopolitical conditions It proceeds to set out a conceptual history of lawfare in the West highlighting conceptual shortcomings and NATO s limited capabilities in this branch of hybrid warfare It then provides a comparative case study and strategic threat assessment of the Chinese concept of unrestricted lawfare Against this the book grounds an ethical doctrine of total lawfare within the Western jurisprudential tradition and translates this into practice as a key pillar of modern defense strategy under the rule of law The book concludes by advocating for a Thielian New Defense industry centered upon total lawfare as a legitimate and effective Western response to enemy aggression The book will be of interest to academics policy makers and students working in the fields of lawfare jurisprudence and military law British Books in Print ,1924 The Crafting of the 10,000 Things
