Bodies And Souls The Century Project:

Bodies and Souls Frank Cordelle, 2006 This book presents a chronological series of nude photographic portraits of more than 90 diverse girls and women of many ages shapes sizes and conditions plus their personal statements about their bodies and experiences These are often highly personal and intensely moving

The Emergence of Man Into the 21st Century Patricia L. Munhall, Ed Madden, Virginia Macken Fitzsimons, 2002 This work offers writings on men's experiences as boys fathers and sons and reflections on relationships gender sexuality race violence loss careers health and the search for meaning The authors who contributed to this work speak to us in a frank and poignant way about the male experience helping us embrace our differences question out presuppositions and understand the diverse meanings of our experiences

Russian Philosophy in the Twenty-First Century Mikhail Sergeev, Alexander N. Chumakov, Mary Theis, 2020-11-23 Russian Philosophy in the Twenty First Century An Anthology provides the English speaking world with access to post Soviet philosophic thought in Russia for the first time The Anthology presents the fundamental range of contemporary philosophical problems in the works of prominent Russian thinkers In contrast to the single mindedness of Soviet era philosophers and the bias toward Orthodox Christianity of migr philosophers it offers to its readers the authors plurality of different positions in widely diverse texts Here one finds strictly academic philosophical works and those in an applied pragmatic format secular and religious that are dedicated to complex social and political matters to pressing cultural topics or insights into international terrorism as well as to contemporary science and global challenges

Epic Performances from the Middle Ages into the Twenty-First Century Fiona Macintosh, Justine McConnell, Stephen Harrison, Claire Kenward, 2018-11-01 Greek and Roman epic poetry has always provided creative artists in the modern world with a rich storehouse of themes Tim Supple and Simon Reade's 1999 stage adaptation of Ted Hughes Tales from Ovid for the RSC heralded a new lease of life for receptions of the genre and it now routinely provides raw material for the performance repertoire of both major cultural institutions and emergent experimental theatre companies This volume represents the first systematic attempt to chart the afterlife of epic in modern performance traditions with chapters covering not only a significant chronological span but also ranging widely across both place and genre analysing lyric film dance and opera from Europe to Asia and the Americas What emerges most clearly is how anxieties about the ability to write epic in the early modern world together with the ancient precedent of Greek tragedy's reworking of epic material explain its migration to the theatre This move though was not without problems as epic encountered the barriers imposed by neo classicists who sought to restrict serious theatre to a narrowly defined reality that precluded its broad sweeps across time and place In many instances in recent years the fact that the Homeric epics were composed orally has rendered reinvention not only legitimate but also deeply appropriate opening up a range of forms and traditions within which epic themes and structures may be explored Drawing on the expertise of specialists from the fields of classical studies English and comparative literature modern languages music dance and theatre and performance studies as well as from practitioners within the creative industries the volume is able to offer an unprecedented modern and dynamic study of epic content and form across myriad diverse performance arenas
