Using and Curating Archaeological Collections S. Terry Childs, Mark S. Warner, 2020-01-01 All archaeologists have responsibilities to support the collections they produce yet budgeting for and managing collections over the length of a project and beyond is not part of most archaeologists training While this book in the SAA Press Archaeology in Action Series highlights major challenges that archaeologists and curators face with regard to collections it also stresses the values uses and benefits of collections It also demonstrates the continued significance of archaeological collections to the profession tribes and the public and provides critical resources for archaeologists to carry out their responsibilities Many lament that the archaeological record is finite and disappearing In this context collections are even more important to preserve for future use and this book will help all stakeholders do so

Business of Art, Herpetological Collecting and Collections Management John E.

Simmons, 2002 Storage of Natural History Collections: A preventive conservation approach, 1992 Preservation of Library & Archival Materials Northeast Document Conservation Center, 1999 Provides the basic practical information needed to plan and implement sound collections care programs or incorporate preservation principles into an existing program

Technology & Conservation, 1992 Historical Hobbies for the Pharmacist Gregory Higby, Elaine

Condouris Stroud, 1994 Paper Conservation News, 1992 Bibliography of Preservation Literature, 1983-1996 Robert E.

Schnare (jr.), Susan G. Swartzburg, George M. Cunha, 2001 Preservation encompasses both the prevention of damage and conservation the physical treatment of damaged objects Deteriorating books environmental control building maintenance housekeeping and storage electronic systems security and disaster planning and recovery are some of the concerns faced by preservation managers Consequently collaboration between collection management conservators and scientists is essential to successfully safeguarding materials The Bibliography of Preservation Literature 1983 1996 highlights the organizations and other resources that will assist in all aspects of collection preservation from protective wrappers to magnetic media to acquisition and organization Professional organizations such as the American Library Association the Society of American Archivists the Guild Book Workers and the Association of Moving Image Archivists are cited While not shying away from controversial issues the comprehensive volume addresses the pragmatic concerns of modern collection preservation Provides access to the best strategies and advice available today in an organized easily accessible format The Storage of Art on Paper Sherelyn Ogden, 2001 All institutions face the deterioration of works of art on paper This latest volume in the Occasional Papers series is a practical guide for professionals needing to store and preserve works of art on paper The author Head of Conservation at the Minnesota Historical Society who has 28 years experience as a practicing conservator consultant and teacher makes the case that preventative care is a realistic goal and is easily accomplished and relatively inexpensive She details the considerations of choosing proper storage locations and enclosures and notes that following these guidelines is a practical cost effective way to contribute to the preservation of works of art on paper Highlights of the discussion include selecting storage locations selecting storage enclosures standard sized enclosures types of enclosures selecting storage furniture types of storage furniture oversized storage and routine handling Contains 25 references AEF Folk Art, 1992 Conservation and Preservation in Small Libraries Parker Library Conservation Project, 1994 The articles in this collection cover many aspects of the problems of conservation and preservation including the differing demands of the scholar and conservator buildings and the problems of maintaining a satisfactory environment and preservation factors in the design of new libraries Conserve O Gram, 1993-07 Studies in Islamic and Later Indian Art from the Arthur M. Sackler Museum, Harvard University Art Museums Arthur M. Sackler Museum, Rochelle L. Kessler, 2002 This volume examines portraits of Mughal rulers Iranian drawing and painting and Samanid epigraphic pottery of medieval Iran and Central Asia Promoting Preservation Awareness in Libraries Jeanne M. Drewes, Julie Page, 1997-05-21 No other book provides such a comprehensive approach to educating library customers and staff in the preservation of library materials Over 35 case studies provide innovative programs and strategies for providing preservation education initiatives throughout the library The various types of materials collected paired with the variety of patrons requires a full spectrum of approaches Going on the assumption that much damage is caused by unknowing misuse this professional reference gives academic school and public library staff as well as special collections staff a solid approach for designing implementing and evaluating formal and informal preservation educational programs As collections deteriorate and library budgets shrink the longevity of collections becomes an increasingly important issue To minimize harm to collections librarians need to emphasize the importance of preservation and proper handling This professional reference explains how to create implement and evaluate formal and informal preservation education programs in school public academic and special collections Chapters are written by contributors from a wide range of positions in librarianship and academia Building on the assumption that most misuse is because of misunderstanding or lack of understanding much attention is given to reaching all types of patrons and changing attitudes Because preservation largely depends on the attitude of patrons much attention is given to reaching all types of patrons Informing adults to avoid misuse and teaching children to respect books and to handle them carefully are two different methods Visual messages using posters bookmarks and signs to educate can help prevent damage Library staff on the other hand benefit from training programs which can effectively include tests and videos Users of rare and archival materials can be informed through brochures and one on one interaction with librarians The volume includes over 35 illustrative case studies and it concludes with an extensive bibliography and videography Magnetic Media Preservation Sourcebook ,1998
