A Bibliography of Contemporary Linguistic Research, 1978

This bibliography has been designed as a tool for use by those engaged in research study or teaching in the field of linguistics. In preparing it we have tried to make it the sort of book that linguists will keep close to their typewriters not the sort of book that one blows dust off in the furthest corner of the reference section in the library. We have been guided in matters of editorial policy by questions such as Just how useful would that be and to whom rather than by questions such as Are we being wholly complete and consistent. Because of this our personal experience and opinions loom large among the factors that have determined the design and content of this book. In this introduction we aim to explain what we have done and what we have not done so that the user of this book can form a clear idea of how to use it. Provided that the nature and scope of the work is understood we believe it will be a significant aid and perhaps even a godsend to the average working linguist.
