Course Description

1 credit (2 semesters)

Fee: Cost of paperback books

Grade Level: 12

Prerequisite: Successful completion of any tier of English 3

Students taking this course should be students who desire a college education, who wish to have further exposure to contemporary American literature, who want to strengthen their analytical reading and writing abilities, and who crave engagement in meaningful discussion about literature. This course fosters college-ready critical reading and analytical skills, as well as develops college-level writing skills, focusing on higher development of sophisticated voice and style for an intended audience. Students taking this course will read modern and post-modern literature from the 20th and 21st centuries. This course requires disciplined reading outside of school (up to 30 pages a night). By the time students exit Contemporary American Literature, they will know how to write about literature in an argumentative and expository fashion as well as analytically discuss literature at a level that is college ready. Students taking this course are required to actively prepare and participate in multiple, student-led, graded formal discussions. Submission of essays and major projects is required to pass the course as well as the maintenance and submission of a writing portfolio.
