Catholic Confirmation Letter

November 15, 2021

Bishop Richard Anderson
Diocese of San Jose
2227 Beech Street
San Jose, CA 95131

Your Excellency,

I am writing this letter to express my sincere desire and request to be confirmed as a full member of the Catholic Church. After much consideration, reflection, and participation in the necessary faith formation and sacramental preparation programs, I feel spiritually ready to take this important step in my faith journey.

I have thoroughly enjoyed learning about the Catholic teachings, sacraments, and traditions during my time as a candidate. The support and guidance from the church community, including yourself and the priests, have been invaluable in deepening my understanding of the Catholic faith and its profound impact on my spiritual life.

Becoming a full member of the Catholic Church will not only allow me to fully

Priests and Their Books in Late Medieval Eichstätt Matthew Wranovix, 2017-10-23 This book analyzes the acquisition and use of texts by the parish clergy in the diocese of Eichstätt between 1400 and 1520 to refute the amusing but misleading image of the lustful and ignorant cleric so popular in the satirical literature of the period By the fifteenth century more widely available local schooling and increasing university attendance had improved the educational level of the clergy priests were bureaucrats as well as pastors and both roles required extensive use of the written word What priests read is a question of fundamental importance to our understanding of the late medieval parish and the role of the clergy as communicators and cultural mediators Priests were entrusted with saying the Mass preaching doctrine and repentance honoring the saints plumbing the conscience and protecting the legal rights of the Church They baptized children blessed the fields and prayed for the souls of the dead What priests read would have informed how they understood and how they performed their social and religious roles By locating and contextualizing the manuscripts printed books and parish records that were once in the hands of priests in the diocese the author has found evidence for the unexpected the avid acquisition of books a theological awareness and an emerging professional identity This marks an important revision to the conventional view of a dramatic era marked by both the transition from manuscripts to printed books and the outbreak of the Reformation through the multitude of voices through which it is written So whether it is a matter of listening to this word in the Church drawing on foundational studies on the biblical text or researching questions in embryology philosophy theology marriage and ecumenism a person is drawn into an amazingly fertile divine human dialogue Indeed in the end it is impossible to express the number of human beings who are in this dialogue and in that very impossibility there is a glimpse of the mystery of God calling us to a dynamic communion Finally given the great challenge of thinking that a person is so immersed in a subjectivism that drowns inter personal dialogue the word of God comes to strengthen the search for truth and facilitates the investigations that transcend individuals groups nations cultures and times For Scripture cannot be more centred in a time a place a people it cannot be more subjective in its account of an immense variety of human experience But then the very historical consistency of the fact that this heritage of utterly human experience has been able to speak to mankind as a whole at any time in any place in any culture is an incredibly convincing testimony that this is a unique word a word that both arises out of a profound anthropology of man and can destroy isolation and effect communion This book then takes up these questions both intensely personal and profoundly contemporary and lets the words Listen Israel resound throughout its pages
