Dearest Sneha,

I am so happy to know that you have been awarded with Best Student of the Year award across Delhi CBSE schools for the academic year 2018-19. A very big congratulations to you on this achievement. It came as a surprise to me when I came across this amazing news in the newspapers yesterday. I must say that it is truly a big achievement and explains all your hard work and dedication you have put into your studies as well as extra-curricular activities. I feel I am so lucky to have a cousin like you who is making the family proud.

Since the times you were a young girl, you have always been so disciplined and focused with your studies and school and today your success is the result of all the sacrifices you have made for all these years, all the hard work you have put in for so many years. We all know that one day you will do something extra-ordinary and the story of your success has just started. We are sure that you will give us many more opportunities to congratulate you in years to come.

Wishing you lots of luck and love,

Radhika

194 High-Impact Letters for Busy Principals Marilyn L. Grady, 2006-07-21 Grady's book encourages principals who are perpetually pressed for time to get to correspondence that languishes at the bottom of their to do lists. My own correspondence has doubled since getting my hands on this book. Cathie West, Principal, Mountain Way Elementary School, Granite Falls, WA. The letters cover a wide variety of topics and give administrators ideas on what kind of letters to write. After going through the letters, I realize that I need to send more letters of appreciation to parents and organizations. Gina Segobiano, Principal, Superintendent, Signal Hill School District, 181 Belleville, IL. Build a culture of care with positive communication. As the key communicators for schools, principals write a wide range of correspondence from thank you letters and congratulations to best wishes and other personal notes. Yet this critical responsibility can easily fall victim to every administrator's busy schedule. Marilyn Grady's updated and expanded collection of letters is truly a time-saving starter kit with user-friendly and easy-to-personalize templates to revitalize every busy administrator's communications repertoire. This practical resource provides jargon-free templates useful for improving communication with parents, teachers, and other school stakeholders. Initiating a letter a day plan to improve school culture. Advancing parent education, health, and wellness and safety initiatives among others. Reminding you to communicate with all stakeholders. Evaluating your current written communication. Identifying areas where you could communicate more. This targeted collection will add a new level of organization, efficiency, and effectiveness to your communication tasks. Unlock the secrets of effective communication and watch relationships on all levels flourish. Includes a PC and Mac compatible CD-ROM containing all letters for easy customization.

The Oxford Magazine, 1908 124 High-Impact Letters for Busy Principals Marilyn L. Grady, 2000-08-16 The letters that can make a difference in the principalship often are the letters that principals have no time to prepare. Often must write negative letters consume the principal's letter writing energies. This collection of letters is primarily focused on the letters that principals have no time to prepare. Clearly principals know how to write letters. They simply have incredible time constraints. The letters in this manual are not a substitute for the personalized letters that principals will craft. This collection is merely a starter kit. The timesaving templates are easy to personalize and customize with the CD that provides a powerful and effective tool ready at the click of the computer mouse. *Annual Circular Letters of the ...
