Alternatives to Privatizing Public Education and Curriculum Daniel Ness, Stephen J. Farenga, 2017-03-16 Through conversations in honor of Dale D Johnson this book takes a critical view of the monoculture in curriculum and policy that has developed in education with the increase of federal funding and privatization of services for public education and examines the shift from public interest and control to private and corporate shareholder hegemony. Most states educational responsibilities assessment of constituents curriculum development and instructional protocols are increasingly being outsourced to private enterprises in an effort to reduce state budgets. These enterprises have been given wide access to state resources such as public data from state sanctioned testing results field testing rights to public schools and financial assistance. Chapter authors challenge this paradigm as well as the model that has set growing premiums on accountability and performance measures. Connecting common impact between the standards movement and the privatization of education this book lays bare the repercussions of high stakes accountability coupled with increasing privatization. Winner of The Society of Professors of Education Book Award 2018

Consumer Behavior and Marketing Strategy J. Paul Peter, Jerry Corrie Olson, 1996 This work shows how the various elements of consumer analysis fit together in an integrated framework called the Wheel of Consumer Analysis. Psychological social and behavioural theories are shown as useful for understanding consumers and developing more effective marketing strategies. The aim is to enable students to develop skills in analyzing consumers from a marketing management perspective and in using this knowledge to develop and evaluate marketing strategies. The text identifies three groups of concepts affect and cognition behaviour and the environment and shows how these they influence each other as well as marketing strategy. The focus of the text is managerial with a distinctive emphasis on strategic issues and problems. Cases and questions are included in each chapter. Marketing W/PowerWeb Michael J. Etzel, Bruce J.
