Cricket and Nationhood in the Twenty-First Century Souvik Naha, 2024-11-20

This book presents a comprehensive exploration of the contemporary global landscape characterized by unsettling dynamics in identity politics state authority capitalism nationalism and nationhood during the twenty first century Using cricket as a lens

it argues that the sport plays a profound role in a global society This sport has not only generated the contexts and tools for shaping promoting displaying and legitimizing nationalism and national identity it has also served as a conduit for followers who express national optimism and aspirations Cricket as a political project intricately interweaves territorial and emotional dimensions of belonging attitudes and involvement thus offering a unique perspective for understanding the modern world across South Asia Australia Western Europe Southern Africa and North America The chapters analyse how the audience of cricket about two billion people understand themselves in relation to their involvement in cricket and what interactions among these groups tell us about global identity politics Cricket provides communities with a dynamic space and social capital facilitating the negotiation of gender sexual ethnic and racial identities within their adopted environments It has been a potent medium in shaping ethnic and racial identities surpassing surface level displays of national colours and unified chants This book marks a significant step forward delving into the comprehensive performative emotional and representational significance inherent in these circumstances

Handbook of Latin American Studies Vol. 75 Katherine D. McCann, 2021-12-14 The 2021 volume of the benchmark bibliography of Latin American Studies

Multidimensional Threats and Regional Responses to Caribbean Security Wendy C. Grenade, 2024-12-20 Multidimensional Threats and Regional Responses to Caribbean Security assesses the prevalence and intensity of intersecting security threats such as transnational organized crime pandemics and climate change on the state of the Caribbean Community CARICOM The interplay of these various threats can adversely affect small island developing states SIDS This book aims to expose the fault lines in Western centric international relations which neglects non military issues non state actors and other security issues affecting SIDS This volume also explores the efficacy of security regionalism for SIDS where multiple actors cooperate across different levels and pool sovereignty resources and capabilities within legitimate institutional structures in order to prepare for prevent and collectively respond to severe security threats This book argues for a more inclusive global IR that considers the realities of the developing world and a reimagining of security regionalism among CARICOM SIDS

Sustainable Development and Resilience of Tourism Deepak Chhabra, Navin Atal, Alka Maheshwari, 2024-08-29 This volume examines progress in sustainable and resilient development of niche forms of tourism from a health and wellbeing perspective It also aims to offer deep and innovative insights on the supporting role of non pharmaceutical interventions to enhance resilience and wellbeing of visited and visiting communities A comparative and critical discourse of the role of hard medicine is also offered from both a core and supplementary perspective particularly from eudaimonic and physiologically restorative standpoints Furthermore indigenous non pharmaceutical interventions and spiritual healing mechanisms are discussed in the context of their potential to facilitate long term immunity and happiness The book conceptually situates health as a fourth pillar of sustainability and examines its role in stimulating long lasting transformations rooted in positive psychology inner transformation and sustainable consumption of organic products and services It designs an evolving transformational Quality of Life paradigm that strengthens the foundations of health wellbeing based sustainable development initiatives and resilience of tourism systems The work will be of interest to academic professional and various public and private stakeholders of tourism such as destination marketing organizations policy makers hospitality industries tour operators host communities NGOs and government agencies The Urban Caribbean in an Era of Global Change Robert B. Potter,2000 Based on the author s first hand field research this book addresses the twin processes of urbanization and globalization as they affect the contemporary Caribbean region One of the key aims of the book is to focus attention on the fact that contrary to popular perceptions the Caribbean is highly urbanized Indeed statistics show that the region is more highly urbanized than the world taken as a whole In addition the fact that the Caribbean region has always been affected by processes of globalization in respect of its economy polity and society is central to the text The chapters cover pressing topics such as urban change and the evolution of mini metropolitan regions the importance of the mercantile and plantopolis frameworks tourism post modernity and the urban nexus economic change and the dual processes of global convergence and divergence and the nature of the relationships existing between the state the informal sector housing and environmental conditions In reality it is shown that the development of tourism and enclave manufacturing is leading to new forms of urban concentration and not spatial dispersal Tourism Planning for the Eastern Caribbean States Dunstan Christopher James,1993
