The Blue Moon Laurence Housman, 2004-10 Nillywill and Hands pansy were the most unimportant and happy pair of lovers the world has ever gained or lost With them it had been a case of love at first blindness since the day when they had tumbled into each other's arms in the same cradle And Hands pansy when he first saw her did not discover that Nillywill was a real princess hiding her birthright in the home of a poor peasant nor did Nillywill when she first saw Hands see in him the baby beginnings of the most honest and good heart that ever sprang out of poverty and humble parentage So from her end of their little crib she kicked him with her royal rosy toes and he from his kicked back and laughed and thus as you hear at first blindness they fell head over ears in love with one another Every Blue Moon Hildie McQueen, 2016-05-01 The Blue
