Caroline An American Woman S Experience:

Caroline Caroline Sewall Hanks, 2014-10-17 Caroline is the story of a remarkably engaging and vivacious woman Her story will inspire you make you laugh and cry while lifting your spirit in appreciation for the strong intelligent and capable women that America produced in the 20th century Born in 1924 on Long Island NY CAROLINE as a child lived through the lean years of the depression had loving Episcopalian parents got a Physical Education degree from Sargent College and met a Navy lieutenant in Boston and married him in Pearl Harbor near the end of World War II She raised a family of five while volunteering as a leader in education everywhere they lived In Chicago she confronted the Daly Machine and won To help pay college expenses for her kids in her fifties she worked part time while earning her Master s degree enabling her to become a personnel manager in retail She retired at 62 to nurse her husband with cancer until he died in 1986 She subsequently traveled to the world including Egypt China Sweden France Australia and Russia In her mid sixties in the Chicago suburbs she volunteered to run a free Career Resource Center for the unemployed She eventually settled in Naples FL where she spent time designing and sewing costumes for the local theater tending her garden and reading the newspaper cover to cover completing every crossword puzzle Politics is her new passion making her a TV news junkie She volunteers as an official for elections and has little patience for the do nothing politicians in Washington Three years ago Caroline had a stroke forcing her to slow down and give up her driver s license CAROLINE now has eight grandchildren and six beautiful great grandchildren with a seventh on the way Everywhere she lived she and her husband made long lasting friends hosted great parties worked tirelessly and were avidly involved in the community By her example she taught her children to be smart responsible and good citizens She celebrated her Prophetic Sisterhood Cynthia Grant Tucker, 2000 A powerful usable history of women who broke through the boundaries of gender to enter the ordained ministry in the late 19th century

Nineteenth-century Literature Criticism Laurie Lanzen Harris, 1981 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights short story writers and other creative writers who lived between 1800 and 1900 from the first published critical appraisals to current evaluations Private Woman, Public Stage Mary Kelley, 2017-11-01 In the decades spanning the nineteenth century thousands of women entered the literary marketplace Twelve of the century s most successful women writers provide the focus for Mary Kelley s landmark study Maria Cummins Caroline Howard Gilman Caroline Lee Hentz Mary Jane Holmes Maria McIntosh Sara Parton Catharine Maria Sedgwick E D E N Southworth Harriet Beecher Stowe Mary Virginia Terhune Susan Warner and Augusta Evans Wilson These women shared more than commercial success Collectively they created fictions that Kelley terms literary domesticity books that both embraced and called into question the complicated expectations shaping the lives of so many nineteenth century women Matured in a culture of domesticity and dismissed by a male writing establishment they struggled to reconcile public recognition with the traditional roles of wife and mother Drawing on the 200 volumes of published prose and on the letters diaries and journals of these writers Kelley explores the tensions that accompanied their unprecedented literary success In a new preface she discusses the explosion in the scholarship on writing women since the original 1984 publication of Private Woman Public Stage and reflects on the book's ongoing relevance

Women, America, and Movement Susan L. Roberson, 1998 Since the colonial days American women have traveled migrated and relocated always faced with the challenge of reconstructing their homes for themselves and their families Women America and Movement offers a journey through largely unexplored territory the experiences of migrating American women These narratives both real and imagined represent a range of personal and critical perspectives some of the women describe their travels as expansive and freeing while others relate the dreadful costs and sacrifices of relocating Despite the range of essays featured in this study the writings all coalesce around the issues of politics poetry and self identity described by Adrienne Rich as the elements of the politics of location treated here as the politics of relocation The narratives featured in this book explore the impact of race class and sexual economics on migratory women their self identity and their roles in family and social life These issues demonstrate that in addition to geographic place ideology is itself a space to be traversed By examining the writings of such women as Louise Erdrich Zora Neale Hurston and Gertrude Stein the essayists included in this volume offer a variety of experiences The book confronts such issues as racist politicking against Native Americans African Americans and Asian immigrants sexist attitudes that limit women to the roles of wife mother and sexual object and exploitation of migrants from Appalachia and of women newly arrived in America These essays also delve into the writings themselves by looking at what happens to narrative structure as authors or their characters cross geographic boundaries The reader sees how women writers negotiate relocation in their texts and how the written word becomes a place where one finds oneself
