Other members of the community may be inspired by such an activity and volunteer to join; this may ignite a chain reaction where many people may end up participating and turning a single activity into a project covering the entire community. Such a project brings people together and develops a spirit of togetherness and caring for one another, and the surroundings (Arrington).

The way the priests lead such simplistic lives inspired me and interacting with ordinary people emulating their lives made it seem achievable. I developed a sense of discipline from following the schedule of the activities at the temple as they were adhered to strictly. In addition, the community service gave me exposure to people of different backgrounds, cultures and ages.

It is detrimental, however, to impress community service upon high school students because it makes them repel against it and lose enthusiasm. That kind of repulsion may make them develop a negative attitude towards the whole exercise, which in turn could cause them not
