

English Class Reflection Paper

4 pages | 931 words

It's hard to believe that my amazing journey in English 104 is coming to an end. The journey has been so much more enjoyable than I initially expected. I have tried to avoid taking English 104 numerous times because reading and writing have not been my strong points. Each time I attempted to take this course, I dropped it due to a particular instructor style, or a boring set of literary materials. This time around was different, as I set my goal to obtain my bachelor degree in Business Administration by the end of this summer. Therefore, I was determined to force my way through this class no matter what challenges I had to endure.

To my pleasant surprise, this class was much better than the others. I felt the information and learning come much easier. I enjoyed the class materials and the professor did a very good job responding in earnest to my submissions. Because of the much better experience, I truly believe I have become a better writer and a better critical thinker. Through the discussion board and the professor's guidance of our writing assignments, I have improved my analytical skills as well as developed a greater organizational skills.

The discussion board was an important tool in developing my understanding of different aspects of the literature reviewed in this course. This new discussion format allowed me to read other students contributions on the same topic, as well as Professor Duclos-Yourdon's direct and prompts for a deeper analysis. For example, in week five discussion three, we discussed Sister James' character, as I said "Father Flynn offers reasonable explanation about the situation and his involvement with Donald and Sister James' doubt is appeased. This shows that Sister James is easily persuaded and has no eager to actively seek the truth on her own"(Vickery DB)

Following my thread, Kimberly raised a very interesting question by adding, "who is the real criminal in this play Is it Father Flynn with what reported or is it Sister Aloysius as she manipulates Sister James for her own benefit?"(Voss DB) Through engaging discussion with students on a regular basis, I was able to develop a more detailed understanding of literature work. Additionally, alternative views helped me to incorporate logic and critical thought into my arguments. As a result, I am better equipped to gather necessary information to begin writing my assignments.

Professor Duclos-Yourdon's guidance was crucial in helping me develop my critical thinking skills. Our first literary analysis essay was the most difficult one for me in this course as I had not written an academic paper in nearly ten years. I decided to write my first paper on "The Yellow Wallpaper" and wanted to submit my rough draft for initial feedback. For fear of not achieving the minimum 1000 word requirement, I began to construct random ideas in my paper, as the professor commented, "Your argument should stay focused on the story. These larger implications can be raised in the conclusion if they come naturally from your argument."(Dulcos Essay1)
