Condiment Manual Fast Food:

The Complete Book on Spices & Condiments (with Cultivation, Processing & Uses) 2nd Revised Edition NIIR Board of Consultants & Engineers, 2006-04-01

The term spices and condiments applies to such natural plant or vegetable products and mixtures thereof used in whole or ground form mainly for imparting flavor aroma and piquancy to foods and also for seasoning of foods beverages like soups

The great mystery and beauty of spices is their use blending and ability to change and enhance the character of food

Spices and condiments have a special significance in various ways in human life because of its specific flavours taste and aroma

Spices and condiments play an important role in the national economies of several spice producing importing and exporting countries

India is one of the major spice producing and exporting countries

Most of the spices and herbs have active principles in them and development of these through pharmacological and preclinical and clinical screening would mean expansion of considerable opportunities for successful commercialization of the product

Spices can be used to create these health promoting products

The active components in the spices phthalides polyacetylenes phenolic acids flavanoids coumarines triterpenoids sesquiterpenes and monoterpenes are powerful tools for promoting physical and emotional wellness

India has been playing a major role in producing and exporting various perennial spices like cardamoms pepper vanilla clove nutmeg and cinnamon over a wide range of suitable climatic situations

To produce good quality spice products attention is required not only during cultivation but also at the time of harvesting processing and storing

Not as large as in the days when next to gold spices were considered most worth the risk of life and money

The trade is still extensive and the oriental demand is as large as ever

Some of the fundamentals of the book are definition of spices and condiments nomenclature or classification of spices and condiments
