2024 Samuel Eliot Morison Award for Naval Literature Honorable Mention The ability of the United States Navy to fight and win a protracted war in the Pacific was not solely the result of technology tactics or leadership Naval aviation maintenance played a major role in the U S victory over Japan in the second World War The naval war against Japan did not achieve sustained success until enough aircraft technicians were available to support the high tempo of aviation operations that fast carrier task force doctrine demanded When the United States realized war was imminent and ordered a drastic increase in the size of its aviation fleet the Navy was forced to reconsider its earlier practices and develop new policies in maintenance supply and technical training Not only did a shortage of technicians plague the Navy but the scarcity of aviation supply and repair facilities in the Pacific soon caused panic in Washington While the surface Navy s modernization of at sea replenishment was beneficial it did not solve the problems of sustaining war time aircraft readiness levels sufficient to a winning a naval air war Fisher outlines the drastic institutional changes that accompanied an increase in aviation
