O'Meara, 2019-12-01 International Education Inquiries is a book series dedicated to realizing the global vision of Education 2030. This vision involves ensuring inclusive and equitable quality education and promoting lifelong learning opportunities for all. The founding editors seek to provide a forum for the diverse voices of scholars and practitioners from across the globe asking questions about transforming the vision of Education 2030 into a reality. Published chapters will reflect a variety of formats free of methodological restrictions involving disciplinary as well as interdisciplinary inquiries. We expect the series will be a leading forum for pioneers redefining the global discussion about the people, places and perspectives shaping Education 2030 outcomes. Education 2030 topics of interest include but are not limited to: Improving access to quality early childhood development care and pre-primary education; Ensuring equal access for all women and men to affordable and quality education; Increasing the number of youth and adults who have skills relevant for sustainable living and livelihoods; Ensuring equal access for the vulnerable including persons with disabilities, indigenous peoples and children in vulnerable situations; Achieving levels of literacy and numeracy required to engage in communities and employment; Acquiring the knowledge and skills needed to promote sustainable development including Human right Gender equality; Promotion of a culture of peace and non-violence; Global citizenship education; The appreciation of cultural diversity and of culture's contributions to sustainable development; Providing safe, non-violent, inclusive and effective learning environments for all; Recruiting, preparing, supporting and retaining quality teachers. Junior Graphic Mavis Kitcher (Mrs), 2014-09-10

Mothers' Non-Farm Entrepreneurship and Child Secondary Education in Rural Ghana Janssens, Charlotte, Van den Broeck, Goedele, Maertens, Miet, Lambrecht, Isabel, 2018-01-31 In this paper we empirically analyse the impact of mothers' non-farm entrepreneurship on child secondary school enrollment in rural Ghana. We use nationally representative quantitative data from the sixth round of the Ghana Living Standard Survey (GLSS) and qualitative data from focus group discussions throughout rural Ghana. We apply instrumental variable estimation techniques with instruments that pass weak and overidentification tests. We test interaction effects between mothers' non-farm entrepreneurship and other important determinants of child schooling. We use qualitative data to support our quantitative findings. Stepping Up Skills in Urban Ghana Peter Darvas, Marta Favara, Tamara Arnold, 2017-08-15 The Skills Toward Employment and Productivity (STEP) Survey is an initiative of the World Bank in cooperation with other development partners and nongovernmental agencies and carried out in more than 14 countries globally. In Ghana, the first phase of the survey focusing on adults in urban communities was carried out in cooperation with the University of Ghana's Institute of Statistical, Social and Economic Research (ISSER), the Ministry of Education, the Council for Technical and Vocational Education and Training (COTVET) and the Ghana Statistical Service (GSS).
