While reading the story, take notes on the major events of the story, as well as what is emphasized by the author and how it is emphasized.

Section	What happens	What is emphasized and HOW
Paragraphs 1-5	The narrator describes his "friend." Buddy's friend announces that "it's fruitcake weather" and wants to get started baking 30 cakes.	The woman's enthusiasm is emphasized by the punctuation (exclamation points) and excitement in her eyes. The language she uses shows her impatience (stop stuffing biscuit). Also, the fact that her excitement is mentioned in two different places in this section – interrupted by background information – shows its importance. Students may also make a case that just the fact that the other relatives make them cry lends emphasis to the fact that they don't get along due to the emotional nature of the statement. NOTE: Not much is emphasized since this is the exposition.
Paragraphs 6-8	They prepare to go in search of pecans. The pecans were difficult to get/find. They shell the pecans for the fruitcakes.	The buggy and its uses are emphasized by vivid language and lengthy description. This object seems to embody their adventures and bond to each other. The shelling of the pecans is emphasized by the length of the description, showing how well the two work together and how much they enjoy each other's company. Buddy's friend's suggestion to deprive themselves of eating any shows how important the quality of the cakes is to his friend.
Paragraphs 9 – 11	Buddy reveals how he and his friend make money for their "fruitcake fund." Buddy describes his friend by telling what she does and does not do. They count their money, again remembering how they earned it.	The fact that Buddy and his friend worked together to earn this money is emphasized. No examples are given of either of them making money without the other. The personality of Buddy's friend being very naïve and childlike is emphasized by both the juvenile nature of the activities they do to make money and the list of things that she does and doesn't do (she doesn't wear cosmetics or curse, but does feed hungry dogs and tell ghost stories). NOTE: A few examples of other activities are given that don't fit this pattern; the teacher may discuss with students how this serves to emphasize the other examples of her naiveté even more.
