Education Sector Plans and their Implementation in Developing Countries Roy Carr-Hill, 2023-03-09 This book examines the factors affecting the successful implementation of Education Sector Plans in developing countries It provides a detailed comparison that draws on data from 27 countries to offer careful research conclusions and policy recommendations Offering a detailed comparison of the schooling situation e.g. availability of potable water and toilets provision for the disabled as well as educational outcomes both test scores and percentages out of school from the 27 countries using empirical evidence the book examines the resources that have been invested in different education sectors investigating the development and success of each plan The volume uses correlation analysis to compare factors including the availability of government funding national characteristics ministerial decisions influences of country and donor stakeholders as well as district and school level issues Thorough comparative analysis of the data is then demonstrated with two measures of achievements to identify which factors can be considered as the most important in order to reach realistic policy and research conclusions Timely and engaging this book will be of great interest to researchers scholars and postgraduate students in the field of education and international development comparative education and international education more broadly

Grenada, Island of Conflict George Brizan, 1998 On 19 October 1983 the Caribbean island of Grenada captured international headlines when revolutionary Prime Minister Maurice Bishop and many of his colleagues were killed in a confrontation resulting in American intervention This text examines past turmoil in Grenada by focusing on six episodes in the island's history including the European destruction of the first Amerindian inhabitants the rebellion against the rule of the French and then the British colonialists the disgrace of Gairy and the demise of Maurice

Bishop and the PRG The book shows how the socio economic and political background to each conflict holds the key to its resolution and asks whether Grenadians can now become masters of their own destiny rather than subject to external agencies and groups Annual Progress Report on National Social Policy Goals ,2003 Resources in Education ,1998-07 Current Index to Journals in Education ,1985 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1995
