Biblical Crisis Counseling Not If But When:

Biblical Crisis Counseling John Babler, 2014-11-20 The word crisis comes from the Greek krisis which literally means decision When trials temptations disasters personal sin or anything else bring us to a point of crisis how we respond the decisions we make and actions we take will either reflect a faithful obedient God honoring heart or a doubtful self centered one Because crises bring about the need to make many decisions Christians are afforded opportunities to glorify God by making choices and acting in ways that honor Him The Biblical Crisis Intervention model presented in this book provides a template upon which the counselor can base his or her crisis ministry As the world provides temporary solutions to those in crisis the Biblical Crisis Intervention Model offers an opportunity for those in crisis to find the healing that God offers

Christian Counseling Ethics Randolph K. Sanders, 1997-06-09 A client raises spiritual questions Can a Christian therapist working in a government agency talk with a client about faith A young couple with two children asks a Christian counselor to help them negotiate an end to their marriage What responsibility does the counselor have to try to repair the relationship A youth group member confidentially reveals to the pastor that he is taking drugs Should the pastor tell the boy s parents A counselor who teaches a college course has a client show up for class What should she do These are just a few of the complex dilemmas that therapists counselors and pastors face nearly every day Handling these situations appropriately is critical for both the client's progress and the professional's personal credibility and protection from liability State and federal codes professional association statements and denominational guidelines have been drawn up to address ethical issues like competence confidentiality multiple relationships public statements third parties and documentation In this book you ll find them all compiled and interpreted in light of Christian faith and practice Written by qualified professional counselors and respected academic instructors this book is an indispensable resource for understanding and applying ethics in Christian counseling today Dr. Babler's Counseling Notes John Babler, 2018-11-05 This book is designed to be a tool to help Biblical Councilors and other Christians become more effective at ministering Scripture When God began to show the author the sufficiency of His Word for counseling as well as for all of ministry and life he quickly realized that there was much more than he could memorize or know where to find As he read and studied the Bible and encountered a verse or passage he thought would be useful in counseling he began writing a topic or description along with the verse reference on the blank pages in the back of his Bible He also began to make those notes available to students and was told they very helpful as they learned to minister Scripture This book lists these topics and descriptions as well as providing some other tools It is concise and designed to spur readers to add their own notes and topics to make it personal them Beguiled by Brothers Joseph S. Nemer, 2013-07 There are many books and published articles on the subject of problem people in churches They define and diagnose the issue but information on how to deal with it seems miniscule In this book you will find a remedial approach that offers not only practical ways to deal with betrayal from church people but emotional healing from its sting as well
