Principles of Contract at Law and in Equity Frederick Pollock, 1881 The Law Times , 1913 The Law Quarterly Review , 1890 Studies in the Contract Laws of Asia Mindy Chen-Wishart, Alexander Loke, Burton Ong, 2016 Studies in the Contract Laws of Asia provides an authoritative account of the contract law regimes of selected Asian jurisdictions including the major centres of commerce where until now limited critical commentaries have been available in the English language In this new six part series of scholarly essays from leading scholars and commentators each volume will offer an insider's perspective into specific areas of contract law including remedies formation parties contents vitiating factors change of circumstances illegality and public policy and will explore how these diverse jurisdictions address common problems encountered in contractual disputes Concluding each volume will be a closing discussion of the convergences and divergences throughout each across the jurisdictions and comparisons with European jurisdictions from which Asians well as an overview of the common themes found throughout each jurisdiction contract law derive Volume I of this series examines the remedies for breach of contract in the laws of China India Japan Korea Taiwan Singapore Malaysia Hong Kong Korea and Thailand Specifically it addresses the readiness of each legal system in their action to insist that parties perform their obligations the methods of enforcing the parties agreed remedies for breach and the ways in which monetary compensation are awarded Each jurisdiction is discussed over two chapters the first chapter will examine the performance remedies and agreed remedies while the second explores the monetary remedies A concluding chapter offers a comparative overview

The Albany Law Journal , 1874 Index-catalogue of the Law Library of the Supreme Court of Ohio. May 1, 1914 Ohio. Supreme Court. Law Library, Edward Antrim, 1914 The Law Students' Journal John Indermaur, Charles Thwaites, 1890 Commentaries on European Contract Laws Nils Jansen, Reinhard Zimmermann, 2018-07-12 The book provides rule by rule commentaries on European contract law general contract law consumer contract law the law of sale and related services dealing with its modern manifestations as well as its historical and comparative foundations After the collapse of the European Commission's plans to codify European contract law it is timely to reflect on what has been achieved over the past three to four decades and for an assessment of the current situation In particular the production of a bewildering number of reference texts has contributed to a complex picture of European contract laws rather than a European contract law The present book adopts a broad perspective and an integrative approach All relevant reference texts from the CISG to the Draft Common European Sales Law are critically examined and compared with each other As far as the acquis commun ie the traditional private law as laid down in the national codifications is concerned the Principles of European Contract Law have been chosen as a point of departure The rules contained in that document have however been complemented with some chapters sections and individual provisions drawn from other sources primarily in order to account for the quickly growing acquis communautaire in the field of consumer contract law In addition the book ties the discussion concerning the reference texts back to the pertinent historical and comparative background and it thus investigates whether and to what extent these texts can be taken to be genuinely European in nature ie to constitute a manifestation of a common core of European contract law Where this is not the case the question is asked whether and for what reasons they should be seen as points of departure for the further development of European contract law Albany Law Journal ,1872

Aspiration and Reality in Legal Education David Sandomierski,2020-02-24 Contrary to conventional narratives about legal education Aspiration and Reality in Legal Education reveals a widespread desire among law teachers to integrate both theory and practice into the education of versatile and civic minded lawyers Despite this stated desire however this aspiration is largely unrealized due to a host of intellectual and institutional factors that produce a profound gap between what professors believe about law and the ideas they communicate through their teaching Drawing on interviews with over sixty law professors in Canada David Sandomierski makes two important empirical discoveries in this book First he establishes that contrary to a dominant narrative in legal education that conceives of theory and practice as oppositional the vast majority of law professors consider theory to be vitally important in preparing better lawyers Second he uncovers a significant gap between the realist theoretical commitments held by a majority of professors and the formalist theories they almost uniformly convey through their teaching and conceptions of legal reasoning Understanding the intellectual and institutional factors that account for these tensions Sandomierski argues is essential for any meaningful project of legal education reform The Law Relating to Contract of Sale of Goods William Willis,1902 Who's who in America ,1924

Journal of the Society of Public Teachers of Law ,1929 The Lyceum Magazine Ralph Albert Parlette,1922 A Selection of Precedents of Pleading Under the Judicature Acts in the Common Law Divisions John Cunningham (barrister-at-law.),Sir Miles Walker Mattinson,1878 The Law Journal ,1890 The Shorthand Review ,1889
