The Global Woman's Impact on E-Commerce Chizoma C. Nosiri, 2019-04-24 Imagine the irritations of getting unsatisfying service with Western corporations whose products are sold strictly online Perhaps it was another Amazon.com order that was never delivered to a residence in New Delhi India an uncertain TransUnion error made on the credit of an individual in Hong Kong or a lack of action by Citibank to refund a Nigerian customer's account. Receiving incompetent management feedback or the corporate's reluctance to resolve minor customer's issues are unlimited in the United States and even greatly unconstrained in the global environment. These consumer conflicts elevated to the global environment become massive and are destructive to the global consumer domain structure of the Global Female consumer. Her online engagement behavior and confidence and online companies branding on a global level. Such Non Western consumer and corporate conflict interactions can create a catastrophe of cultural wars and clashes. This book discusses the cross cultural study which determines if Western corporations computer mediated communication complaint of a select group of global female consumer who were born raised and live in China, Nigeria and India is affected by their self confidence cultural norms or language barriers. The book follows a scholarly study which determined the factors that make Western corporations online tools unfavorable to the select group of global females when it comes to expressing their concerns as opposed to complaining and addressing conflict issues with the local native businesses in their country. In addition the study explored the difference in her confidence level and behavior during a complaint using corporate computer mediated communication tools contrasted with social media platforms i.e. Facebook or Twitter. This book shows the global female consumer's experience to explore whether she is welcomed, treated as a family member, friend, guest, visitor or stranger during her online shopping. Since her perspective and complaint is an important component to Western corporations global success, this book illustrates how her voice and money matters.
