Colonial Jerusalem Construction Difference Contemporary:

Colonial Jerusalem Thomas Philip Abowd, 2014-06-24 In one of the few anthropological works focusing on a contemporary Middle Eastern city Colonial Jerusalem explores a vibrant urban center at the core of the decades long Palestinian Israeli conflict This book shows how colonialism far from being simply a fixture of the past as is often suggested remains a crucial component of Palestinian and Israeli realities today Abowd deftly illuminates everyday life under Israel's long military occupation as it is defined by processes and conditions of apartness and separation as Palestinians are increasingly regulated and controlled Abowd examines how both national communities are progressively divided by walls checkpoints and separate road networks in one of the most segregated cities in the world Drawing upon recent theories on racial politics colonialism and urban spatial dynamics Colonial Jerusalem analyzes the politics of myth history and memory across an urban landscape integral to the national cosmologies of both Palestinians and Israelis and meaningful to all communities The Lost Orchard

Mustafa Kabha, Nahum Karlinsky, 2021-06-30 The Palestinian Nakba catastrophe of 1948 devastated Palestinian lives and shattered Palestinian society culture and economy It also nipped in the bud a nascent grassroots binational alliance between Arab and Jewish citrus growers This significant and unprecedented partnership was virtually erased from the collective memory of both Israelis and Palestinians when the Nakba decimated villages and populations in a matter of months In The Lost Orchard Kabha and Karlinsky tell the story of the Palestinian citrus industry from its inception until 1950 tracing the shifting relationship between Palestinian Arabs and Zionist Jews Using rich archival and primary sources as well as on a variety of theoretical approaches Kabha and Karlinsky portray the industry's social fabric and stratification detail its economic history and analyze the conditions that enabled the formation of the unique binational organization that managed the country's industry from late 1940 until April 1948 Generations of Dissent Alexa Firat, R. Shareah

Taleghani, 2020-07-23 Situated in the fields of contemporary literary and cultural studies the ten essays collected in Generations of Dissent shed light on the artistic creativity cultural production intellectual movements and acts of political dissidence across the Middle East and North Africa Born of the contributors' research on dissidence and state co-optation in a variety of artistic and creative fields the volume's core themes reflect the notion that the recent Arab uprisings did not appear in a cultural political or historical vacuum Rather than focus on how protestors finally broke the walls of fear created by authoritarian regimes in the region these essays show that the uprisings were rooted in multiple generations and various acts of resistance decades prior to 2010-11 Firat and Taleghani's volume maps the complicated trajectories of artistic and creative dissent across time and space showing how artists have challenged institutions and governments over the past six decades

A Social History of Modern Tehran Ashkan Rezvani Naraghi, 2023-01-05 Outlines how Tehran's social spaces were transformed by shifting discourses and practices from the nineteenth to the mid twentieth century Struggling for Time Natalia Gutkowski, 2024-05-14 Struggling for Time examines how time is used as a mechanism of control by the Israeli state and a site of mundane resistance among Palestinian agriculture professionals Natalia Gutkowski unpacks power structures to show how a settler society lays moral claim on indigenous time through agrarian environmental policies science technologies landscapes and bureaucracy Shifting the analysis of Israel Palestine from land and space to time she offers new insight into the operation of power in agrarian environments and develops a contemporary framework to understand land and resource grabs under temporal justifications Traveling across both policymaking arenas and Palestinian citizens agrarian fields Gutkowski follows the multiple ways that state officials agronomists planners environmentalists and agriculturalists use time as a tool of collective agency Through investigations of wetland drainage in Galilee transformations in olive agriculture sustainable agrarian development and regulation of the shmita biblical commandment the year of release for agricultural fields this work highlights how Palestinian citizens agriculture has become a site for the state to settle and mediate time conflicts to justify its existence As Struggling for Time demonstrates time politics will take on ever greater urgency as societies and governments plan for an uncertain future in our era of climate change

Reapproaching Borders Sandy Sufian, Mark LeVine, 2007-08-27 Territorial borders identity borders and many other kinds of social and cultural borders are constantly questioned in Israel Palestine Reapproaching Borders New Perspectives on the Study of Israel Palestine explores the concept of borders how they are imagined and actualized in this deeply contested land The book focuses on the implicate relations between Palestinian Arabs and Jews providing new insights into the origins and dynamics of the conflicts between them Emphasizing the history of the non elite members of both communities the book sees the relations between Jews and Palestinian Arabs as embedded and reflected in areas of daily living such as in the spheres of architecture commerce health sexuality and the courts Using the voices of the new generation of scholars Reapproaching Borders demonstrates the continued saliency of older themes such as ownership and rights to the land but as they intersect with the newer areas of inquiry such as sexual identity politics and spatial relations

Colonialism and the Jews Ethan B. Katz, Lisa Moses Leff, Maud S. Mandel, 2017-01-30 The lively essays collected here explore colonial history culture and thought as it intersects with Jewish studies Connecting the Jewish experience with colonialism to mobility and exchange diaspora internationalism racial discrimination and Zionism the volume presents the work of Jewish historians who recognize the challenge that colonialism brings to their work and sheds light on the diverse topics that reflect the myriad ways that Jews engaged with empire in modern times Taken together these essays reveal the interpretive power of the Imperial Turn and present a rethinking of the history of Jews in colonial societies in light of postcolonial critiques and destabilized categories of analysis A provocative discussion forum about Zionism as colonialism is also included

The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies, 2003

Fabricating Homeland Security Rhys Machold, 2024-09-24 Homeland security is rarely just a matter of the homeland it involves the circulation and multiplication of policing practices across borders Though the term homeland security is closely associated with the United States Israel is credited with first developing this all encompassing approach to domestic surveillance and territorial control Today it is a central node in the sprawling global homeland security industry worth hundreds of billions of dollars And in the wake of the 2008 Mumbai terrorist attacks India emerged as a major growth market Known as India's 9/11 or simply 26/11 the attacks sparked significant public pressure to adopt modern homeland security approaches Since 2008 India has become not only the single largest buyer of Israeli conventional weapons but also a range of other surveillance technology police training and security expertise Pairing insights from science and technology studies with those from decolonial and postcolonial theory Fabricating Homeland Security traces 26/11's political and policy fallout concentrating on the efforts of Israel's homeland security industry to advise and equip Indian city and state governments Through a focus on the often unseen and overlooked political struggles at work in the making of homeland security Rhys Machold details how homeland security is a universalizing project which seeks to remake the world in its image and tells the story of how claims to global authority are fabricated and put to work
