Dragon Lance

Dwarven Kingdoms of Krynn

by Douglas Miles

Among all the peoples of Krynn, none build such lasting structures, nor labor so diligently to create and expand their domains, as do the dwarves. From the initial dark caverns of Kat-Thar to the vast and multi-tiered metropolises of Thorbarad, these sturdy folk have devised a series of magnificent dwellings.

Some of these domains have been torn into ruin by the all-wrenching history of Krynn, while others continue to grow and flourish, reaching glories undreamed of a generation or two before. Yet they all have their places along the floor of Thoria, and whether ancient or modern, they each illustrate the determination and skill of these sturdy dwarves.

From the Observations of Astinus

At last, the secrets of the dwarves revealed!

The two booklets contained in this boxed set hold information that has never before been collected in one place.

Songs of the Loremaster, for players to read, chronicles the history of the dwarven race on Krynn, from their first appearance on the plane's surface to their withdrawal following the Cataclysm. A World in Stone presents each kingdom in turn for DMs' eyes only, describing how each nation was devised, what each clan's world-view encompasses, and what each kingdom's tale has been.

The four mapshirts are invaluable aids for those who wish to campaign in these hollowed halls; modular styling allows infinite variations of dwarven cities, large and small.

The Tales of the Lance boxed set is suggested, although not required, for full enjoyment of this accessory.
