Citn 2014 Past Question:

Police Abuse and Reform in America James J. Nolan, Howard Ryan, Makenzie Freeman, 2025-07-24 Authoritative and insightful this wide ranging overview of police abuse and violence in American society offers a one stop primer for understanding the forces driving abusive and violent police misconduct In addition to chronicling specific notorious and controversial examples of police violence and abuse this work delves into the root causes of police misconduct details the varied responsibilities and culture of law enforcement in American communities and examines the arguments for and against efforts and proposals to reform and improve police departments In the process Police Abuse and Reform in America gives readers a clear and unbiased understanding of the issue by carefully examining claims about the root causes and extent of police violence and abuse in the USA as well as the efficacy of efforts to reform and improve law enforcement performance For example featured essays tackle such questions as whether policing has become more dangerous over time whether police abuse is more prevalent in communities of color and whether reforms to address and curb incidents of police abuse are effective or counterproductive In addition the book examines events such as the Rodney King beating of 1992 the 2014 killing of Michael Brown in Ferguson Missouri and the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis in 2020 as pivot points in American police history and the social movement landscape

One-Hit Wonders Sarah Hill, 2022-02-24 The one hit wonder has a long and storied history in popular music exhorting listeners to dance to teach the world to sing in perfect harmony to ponder mortality to get a job to bask in the sunshine or just to get up and dance again Catchy memorable irritating or simply ubiquitous one hit wonders capture something of the mood of a time This collection provides a series of short sharp chapters focusing on one hit wonders from the 1950s to the present day with a view toward understanding both the mechanics of success and the socio musical contexts within which such songs became hits Some artists included here might have aspired to success but only managed one hit while others enjoyed lengthy if unremarkable careers after their initial chart success Put together these chapters provide not only a capsule history of popular music tastes but also ruminations on the changing nature of the music industry and the mechanics of fame

European cities Noa K. Ha, Giovanni Picker, 2022-06-28 European cities Modernity race and colonialism is a multidisciplinary collection of scholarly studies which rethink European urban modernity from a race conscious perspective being aware of post colonial entanglements The twelve original contributions empirically focus on such various cities as Barcelona Buenos Aires Cottbus Genoa Hamburg Madrid Mitrovica Naples Paris Sheffield and Thessaloniki engaging multiple combinations of global urban studies from various historical perspectives with postcolonial decolonial and critical race studies Primarily inspired by the notion of Provincializing Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty the collection interrogates dominant Eurocentric theories representations and models of European cities across the East West divide offering the reader alternative perspectives to understand and imagine urban life and politics With its focus on Europe this book ultimately contributes to decades of rigorous critical race scholarship on varied global urban regions European cities is a vital reading for anyone interested in the complex interactions between colonial legacies and constructions of modernity in view of catering to social change and urban justice

Planning for Community-based Disaster Resilience Worldwide Adenrele Awotona, 2016-10-14 We are witnessing an ever increasing level and intensity of disasters from Ecuador to Ethiopia and beyond devastating millions of ordinary lives and causing long term misery for vulnerable populations Bringing together 26 case studies from six continents this volume provides a unique resource that discusses in considerable depth the multifaceted matrix of natural and human made disasters It examines their bearing on the loss of human and productive capital the conduct of national policies and the setting of national development priorities and on the nature of international aid and bilateral assistance strategies and programs of donor countries In order to ensure the efficacy and appropriateness of their support for disaster survivors international agencies humanitarian and disaster relief organizations scholars non governmental organizations and members of the global emergency management community need to have insight into best practices and lessons learned from various disasters across national and cultural boundaries The evidence obtained from the numerous case studies in this volume serves to build a worldwide community that is better informed about the cultural and traditional contexts of such disasters and better enabled to prepare for respond to and finally rebuild sustainable communities after disasters in different environments The main themes of the case studies include the need for community planning and emergency management to unite in order to achieve the mutual aim of creating a sustainable disaster resilient community coupled with the necessity to enact and implement appropriate laws policies and development regulations for disaster risk reduction the need to develop a clear set of urban planning and urban design principles for improving the built environment s capacities for disaster risk management through the integration of disaster risk reduction education into the curricula of colleges and universities the need to engage the whole community to build inclusive governance structures as prerequisites for addressing climate change vulnerability and fostering resilience and sustainability Furthermore the case studies explore the need to link the existence and value of scientific knowledge accumulated in various countries with decision making in disaster risk management and the relevance and transferability from one cultural context to another of the lessons learned in building institutional frameworks for whole community partnerships

Reconstructing Public Housing Matthew Thompson, 2020 Reconstructing Public Housing tells the story of Liverpool s cooperative revolution in municipal housing development in the 1970s how this laid the foundations for the first ever architectural or urban regeneration project to win the artworld s coveted Turner Prize and what this says about how we might renew public housing collectively
