Counseling by the Book John Babler, David Penley, Mike Bizell, 2007-01-18 Dr. Babler's Counseling Notes John Babler, 2018-11-05 This book is designed to be a tool to help Biblical Counselors and other Christians become more effective at ministering Scripture When God began to show the author the sufficiency of His Word for counseling as well as for all of ministry and life he quickly realized that there was much more than he could memorize or know where to find As he read and studied the Bible and encountered a verse or passage he thought would be useful in counseling he began writing a topic or description along with the verse reference on the blank pages in the back of his Bible He also began to make those notes available to students and was told they were very helpful as they learned to minister Scripture This book lists these topics and descriptions as well as providing some other tools It is concise and designed to spur readers to add their own notes and topics to make it personal them The Practice of Pastoral Care Carrie Doehring, 2014-12-05 The Practice of Pastoral Care has become a popular seminary textbook for courses in pastoral care and a manual for clinical pastoral education In it Doehring encourages counselors to view their ministry through a trifocal lens that incorporates premodern modern and postmodern approaches to religious and psychological knowledge Doehring describes the basic ingredients of a caregiving relationship shows how to use the caregiver's life experience as a source of authority and demonstrates how to develop the skill of listening and establishing the actual relationship This new edition elaborates on and expands the author's previous work adding an intercultural perspective that gives more attention to religious pluralism in the pastoral care setting It offers a road map for using a step by step narrative relational embodied approach to spiritual care that respects the unique ways people live out their values and beliefs especially in coping with stress loss and violence Readers will be able to confidently and professionally offer pastoral care and counseling to members of their congregations or other places of ministry
