Crisis Rhetoric and Policy Change in China Yihong Liu, 2022-01-13 This book explores how China s political system responds to crisis A crisis is an episode whose impact cannot be controlled merely by astute on the ground incident management particularly in cases involving widespread doubt about the legitimacy of established policy paradigms or the political order as a whole Crisis can create political windows for advocacy groups challenging established policies in pluralist democracies The political battle between competing definitions of an uncertain and ambiguous situation among the various actors provides them with crisis induced opportunity space for dramatic policy change However the process of crisis induced policy change mainly by crisis framing in non west regimes like China has not been adequately addressed As China s leadership foregrounds legitimacy in victory over COVID 19 and a new era of climate change disasters begins this dynamic model of crisis and recuperation will offer food for thought for scholars of Chinese and global politics
