65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art Marcia Langton, Judith Ryan, 2024-10-15 65 000 Years A Short History of Australian Art stares into the dark heart of Australia's brutal colonial history and offers new insights into the first art of this country Long before Britain's invasion of Australia in 1788 First Peoples cultural and design traditions flourished for thousands of generations Their art shaped the continent as we know it today and the societies that thrived here but these continuing artistic practices and new art forms were disregarded by the settlers and not considered to be fine art until the late 1980s In this publication twenty five writers urge us to reconsider the art history that is unique to the Australian continent and to acknowledge its rise to prominence in modern times Featuring new writing by leading thinkers across generations and disciplines it celebrates Indigenous Australian art across media time and language groups Today Indigenous art and artists are at the forefront of contemporary art practice In very real and tangible ways this publication reveals the artistic brilliance of Australia's First Peoples and stands as a testament to their resilience This book is published in association with a major exhibition at the University of Melbourne's revitalised Potter Museum of Art opening in 2025 Also titled 65 000 Years A Short History of Australian Art the exhibition curated by Professor Marcia Langton AO Ms Judith Ryan AM and Ms Shanyssa McConville features over 400 artworks that celebrate the longevity and brilliance of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art despite a difficult history of colonialism and scientific racism

Jones,2019-02-01 Ochre and Rust offers a fresh perspective on frontier relations between Australian Aboriginal people and European colonists Nine museum artefacts take the reader into a fascinating zone of encounter and mutual curiosity between collectors and those indigenous people who piqued or responded to their interest While colonialism is the broad frame details gleaned from archives images and the objects themselves reveal a new picture of interaction between individual Aboriginal people and European collectors Philip Jones explores and makes sense of particular historical moments in colonial history when Aboriginal people perceived and expected other more elusive outcomes Ochre and Rust an elegantly written challenge to received wisdom about the colonial frontier has won Australia's inaugural Prime Minister's Award for Literary Non Fiction
