Paucis and Philemon is a story about a man and a woman who were very poor. They had a small house and a few chickens. One day, a man named Paucis came to their house. He was very poor and had no money. He asked Philemon for help. Philemon was very kind and gave him food and clothes. Paucis was very grateful and stayed in Philemon's house for a long time. One day, Paucis decided to go home. He said to Philemon, "I am going home now. I will never forget you." Philemon said, "I will never forget you either. I will always be your friend." Paucis and Philemon were very happy and lived happily ever after.
