Christian Zionism Examined, Second Edition Steven Paas, 2020-01-15 This book deals with Christian Zionism and in a wider sense with the phenomenon of Israelism By Israelism I mean a certain kind of literal reading of the Scriptures God's revealed plan for Israel and the Jewish people are construed by many in such a way that Jews are to receive a higher status or a lower place than all other nations These two opposite positions have many gradations from moderate to extreme The most extreme consequences are glorification and degradation idolization and hatred Philo Semitism and Anti Semitism Christian Zionism Examined emphatically asserts that the Bible provides absolutely no basis for this literal way of reading and understanding the prophetic word in the Holy Scriptures God's promises of redemption and judgment to Old Testament Israel have never meant to be solely fulfilled to one particular ethnic people and geographical area i.e. only modern Israel or only the Jewish people Redemption and judgment are fulfilled in Christ In him those promises or predictions have received a final meaning for all nations essentially for all creation The completion of that fulfillment will take place upon his return in the perfection of his kingdom or his universal rule and in the final judgment Sketches of the Christian Life and Public

Labors of William Miller James White, 1875 A Physicist Examines Hope in the Resurrection John F.

Wilson, 2016-12-22 John Polkinghorne ordained member of the Royal Society past President of Queen's College Cambridge Knight Commander of the Order of the British Empire 2002 Templeton Prize winner theoretical physicist and theologian writes in breathless style to unfold core Christian doctrine in dialogue with science His work deftly addresses how one would interpret and commend Christian faith in the contemporary world as he elucidates the key topics in the dialogue of religion with science Polkinghorne's work addresses the hope Christians have present and future in the faithfulness of a loving God who stands alongside them today and for all eternity Eschatological hope enables and empowers Christian life and emerges in God's resurrection of Jesus from the horrific crucifixion Polkinghorne ably supports his thesis with a strong argument for the resurrection built on the kenotic acts of God His thesis sees Christian eschatology as the advent of hope the heart of faith In Christian eschatology as argued by Polkinhorne and supported in the work of Jurgen Moltmann and Nicholas T Wright Christ's presence is not some far off event but present reality Making Laws for a Christian Society Roy

Flechner, 2021-03-30 This is the first comprehensive study of the contribution that texts from Britain and Ireland made to the development of canon law in early medieval Europe The book concentrates on a group of insular texts of church law chief among them the Irish Hibernensis tracing their evolution through mutual influence their debt to late antique traditions from around the Mediterranean their reception and occasional rejection by clerics in continental Europe their fusion with continental texts and their eventual impact on the formation of a European canonical tradition Canonical collections

penitentials and miscellanies of church law and royal legislation are all shown to have been living texts which were continually reshaped through a process of trial and error that eventually gave rise to a more stable and more coherent body of church laws Through a meticulous text critical study Roy Flechner argues that the growth of church law in Europe owes as much to a serendipitous conversation between texts as it does to any deliberate plan overseen by bishops and popes
