Contract Mining Jobs Africa:

Local Responses to Mine Closure in South Africa Sethulego Matebesi, Lochner Marais, Verna Nel, 2024-02-12 This book investigates mine closure and local responses in South Africa linking dependencies and social disruption Mine closure presents a major challenge to the mining industry and government policymakers globally but particularly in the Global South South Africa is experiencing notable numbers of mine closures and this book explores the notion of social disruption a concept often applied to describe the effects of mine growth on communities but often neglecting the impact of mine closures The book begins with three theoretical chapters that discuss theory closure cost frameworks and policy development in South Africa It uses evolutionary governance theory to show how mining creates dependencies and how mining growth often blinds communities and governments to the likelihood of closure Too easily mining goes ahead with no concern for the possibility or indeed inevitability of eventual closure and how mining communities will cope These impacts are showcased through eight place based case studies from across South Africa one focusing on mine workers to demonstrate that mine closure causes significant social disruption This book will be of interest to students and scholars researching the social impacts of mining and the extractive industries social geography and sustainable development as well as policymakers and practitioners working with mine closure and social impact assessments Gold Mining Companies in Africa, 2007 Africa Yearbook Volume 6 Andreas Mehler, Henning Melber, Klaas van Walraven, 2010-10-15 The Africa Yearbook covers major domestic political developments the foreign policy and socio economic trends in sub Sahara Africa all related to developments in one calendar year The Yearbook contains articles on all sub Saharan states each of the four sub regions West Central Eastern Southern Africa focusing on major cross border developments and sub regional organizations as well as one article on continental developments and one on African European relations While the articles have thorough academic quality the Yearbook is mainly oriented to the requirements of a large range of target groups students politicians diplomats administrators journalists teachers practitioners in the field of development aid as well as business people Democratic Reform in Africa Connie Park Rice, Marie Tedesco, 2015-03-15 Scholars of southern Appalachia have largely focused their research on men particularly white men While there have been a few important studies of Appalachian women no one book has offered a broad overview across time and place With this collection editors Connie Park Rice and Marie Tedesco redress this imbalance telling the stories of these women and calling attention to the varied backgrounds of those who call the mountains home The essays of Women of the Mountain South debunk the entrenched stereotype of Appalachian women as poor and white and shine a long overdue spotlight on women too often neglected in the history of the region Each author focuses on a particular individual or group but together they illustrate the diversity of women who live in the region and the depth of their life experiences The Mountain South has been home to Native American African American Latina and white women both rich and poor Civil rights and gay rights advocates environmental and labor activists prostitutes and coal miners

all have lived in the place called the Mountain South and enriched its history and culture The Specter of Global China Ching Kwan Lee, 2018-01-03 China has recently emerged as one of Africa's top business partners aggressively pursuing its raw materials and establishing a mighty presence in the continent's booming construction market. Among major foreign investors in Africa, China has stirred the most fear, hope, and controversy. For many, the specter of a Chinese neocolonial scramble is looming, while for others, China is Africa's best chance at economic renewal. Yet global debates about China in Africa have been based more on rhetoric than on empirical evidence. Ching Kwan Lee's The Specter of Global China is the first comparative ethnographic study that addresses the critical question: Is Chinese capital a different kind of capital? Offering the clearest look yet at China's state-driven investment in Africa, this book is rooted in six years of extensive fieldwork in copper mines and construction sites in Zambia, Africa's copper giant. Lee shadowed Chinese Indian and South African managers in underground mines, interviewed Zambian miners and construction workers, and worked with Zambian officials. Distinguishing carefully between Chinese state capital and global private capital in terms of their business objectives, labor practices, managerial ethos, and political engagement with the Zambian state and society, she concludes that Chinese state investment presents unique potential and perils for African development. The Specter of Global China will be a must-read for anyone interested in the future of China, Africa, and capitalism worldwide Africa: Continent of Economic Opportunity David Fick, 2007-04-01 Divided into geographic regions and representing every African nation, this comprehensive collection of case studies explores how successful business enterprises of varying size, along with community projects, help to create jobs in Africa. A valuable guide to conducting business anywhere on the continent, this account also offers information on finding business opportunities and handling oft-encountered problems Harnessing Migration for Inclusive Growth and Development in Southern Africa Crush, Jonathan, Dodson, Belinda, 2017-04-11 The primary goal of this study is to present the results of a comprehensive scope of key opportunities and challenges for harnessing migration for inclusive growth and development at the regional level in Southern Africa. The main objectives were as follows: Provide an overview of regional migration stocks and flows; identifying regional trends, drivers, and impacts from existing research literature and official data; Profile migrant characteristics at the regional level, including demographic composition, types of migration, and occupational profile; Examine the relevance of multilateral, continental, and regional migration instruments, policies, protocols, agreements, and forums with a view to identifying actions required to move the regional migration management agenda forward and align with the goal of enhancing migration for inclusive growth and development in Southern Africa; Analyze the key initiatives, opportunities, and obstacles to developing a coherent, integrated, and rights-regarding approach to migration management, including areas of common commitment and ownership and points of actual and potential conflict and disagreement between states; Conduct a gender analysis of regional migration dynamics, including gender dimensions of migration challenges, dangers, and vulnerabilities confronting migrant women and other vulnerable groups and gender analysis of migration management in Southern Africa Identify potential programming areas that are weak or underdeveloped Minerals and Africa's Development United Nations.
