

Trails west:

- Mountain men helped to open the trails to the West.
- During the height of the fur trade - many trappers killed too many animals and had to explore new areas to find animals. They created trails that others would use to travel West.
- Some mountain men worked as guides for people traveling West in groups.

Creating the Administrative Constitution Jerry L. Mashaw, 2012-06-26 This groundbreaking book is the first to look at administration and administrative law in the earliest days of the American republic Contrary to conventional understandings Mashaw demonstrates that from the very beginning Congress delegated vast discretion to administrative officials and armed them with extrajudicial adjudicatory rulemaking and enforcement authority The legislative and administrative practices of the U S Constitution's first century created an administrative constitution hardly hinted at in its formal text Beyond describing a history that has previously gone largely unexamined this book in the author's words will demonstrate that there has been no precipitous fall from a historical position of separation of powers grace to a position of compromise there is not a new administrative constitution whose legitimacy should be understood as not only contestable but deeply problematic
