Managing Human Resources Arthur W. Sherman, George W. Bohlander, Scott Snell, 1998. This leading book emphasizes overall practicality and application. Practical tips and suggestions provide effective ways of dealing with problems in communication, leadership, discipline, performance appraisal, and compensation administration.

Testing Ronna F. Dillon, James Pellegrino, 1989-04-04. Research aimed at developing new approaches to testing of complex intellectual processes occupies the forefront of psychology and education. Testing examines the ongoing research efforts into information processing techniques and measures by the military and academic research and development communities. Psychometricians, educational and cognitive psychologists, and personnel researchers will find this review of current testing literature a valuable and practical research tool. Leading experts and professionals from a variety of backgrounds focus on improvements in measuring broadly defined tests of aptitude and on innovations in measuring intellectual skill. Four main topics treated are: advances in testing, new methods of testing, new aptitude measures, dimensions of job performance.
