work of reference covering British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth. Nearly 9 000 painters are listed with almost 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections. Within this vast coverage is another important category: those pictures that are now lost, mostly as a consequence of the Second World War or have been deaccessioned, mostly in the period from about 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion. The listing of many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works, including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution, makes this book a unique and indispensable work of reference and one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting.

BOOK JACKET London - Frommer's Travel Guides Darwin Porter, Danforth Prince, 1996-10
This complete sightseeing guide features a giant foldout map. Background is given of all London's major historic literary and artistic sights plus a walking tour that leads you through the highlights of the British Museum. An insider's guide to shopping has been added, written by Frommer's expert Suzy Gershman.

Editor & Publisher Market Guide, 1977 Cityguide to Washington, D. C., 1999
The book offers new empirical evidence regarding the spatial dimension of investment entrepreneurship and knowledge spillovers and features both individual and cross-country analyses. FDI in accession countries is examined as is the effect of EU integration on own-country investment. Innovative methodologies and unique new models are then used to provide lessons and policy implications for economic growth prospects in the recently enlarged EU. Researchers and policy makers working in the fields of entrepreneurship, innovation, economic growth, economic integration, and regional development will find this book to be of great interest. It will also be welcomed by students and academics with an interest in European studies, international economics, and regional and urban economics.
